About Us

Raleigh Youth FC is one of North Carolina's fastest-growing soccer clubs, with over 300 memberships since it was founded in 2018. The club competes annually in the National Premier League Division for men and women for ages 18 and below, winning bronze in 2021 for the men's category.

Why Sponsor This Event?

The club will be hosting its foundation anniversary on August 18, 2022. After winning bronze in the 2021 national championship, the club intends to make this a grand celebration together with the less privileged youth of Raleigh, North Carolina.

The event will garner media attention both locally and nationally, with the presence of retired American soccer midfielder Daniel Alvarez. Sponsors of this event will also garner brand visibility from the club's promotional campaigns.

Sponsor Proposal For Soccer Academy:

A Social History of Indian Football Kausik Bandyopadhyay, Boria Majumdar, 2018-10-24 A Social History of Indian Football covers the period 1850-2004. It considers soccer as a derivative sport creatively and imaginatively adapted to suit modern Indian socio-cultural needs designed to fulfil political imperatives and satisfy economic aspirations. The book is concerned with the appropriation, assimilation and subversion of sporting ideals in colonial and post-colonial India for nationalist needs. The book assesses the role of soccer in colonial Indian life to delineate the inter-relationship between those who patronised, promoted, played and viewed the game to analyse the impact of the colonial context on the game's evolution and development and shed light on the diverse nature of trysts with the sport across the country. Throughout this book, soccer is the lens that illuminates India's colonial and post-colonial encounter. This volume was previously published as a special issue of the journal Soccer and Society. Fundamentals Of: Sports Management Dr. Suman Bala, Fundamentals of Sports Management is a comprehensive guide designed for students, aspiring sports professionals and administrators who want to understand the inner workings of the sports industry. Covering everything from organizational structures and event planning to marketing, sponsorship and athlete management, this book or course module equips readers with practical knowledge and strategic insight. Principles of management in a sports context, Sports marketing and sponsorship, Facility and event management, Financial and legal aspects of sports, Governance and ethics in sports organizations, Career opportunities in the sports industry. An American Soccer Dream Kenneth Jones, 2011-07-01 An American Soccer Dream walks through the trials and tribulations of retooling the United States National Soccer Program. Using many resources previously untapped, talent pools, an array of underutilized ethnic soccer clubs, the power of technology and one of the best sports marketers, two friends, one a foot soldier in the national soccer federation and another a technology professional with a love of the game, work tirelessly to implement their vision. An American Soccer Dream chronicles the team's exploits traveling the streets of America and beyond, detailing efforts to raise an organization to new heights and winding their way throughout North and Central America before the team's journey ultimately concludes at the World Cup Finals in Brazil in the June of 2014. But as the players and coaches travel this road together, something even more special is sparked: a spirit and kinship of family which brings together this set of diverse human beings. Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayebofoh, 2006-02-17 Who is Responsible? Canada. Commission of Inquiry into the Sponsorship Program and Advertising Activities, John Howard Gomery, 2005 This is the report of the commission of inquiry known as the Gomery Commission into federal sponsorship advertising programs that began in 1994-95 in the advertising section of Public Works Government Services Canada. The introduction provides background on the inquiry process and the programs. Part 2 summarizes the 2003 report of the Auditor General that revealed problems in the government's handling of the sponsorship program where the government financially assisted cultural community events in exchange for the sponsored organization's providing visibility for the federal government Part 3 reviews the structure organization operation of the federal government including discussion of ministerial responsibility Part 4 reviews the origins of the sponsorship program Parts 5 to 8 contain findings regarding the selection of advertising communication agencies the administration of the sponsorship program the audits carried out of the organizations handling the government s advertising activities sponsorships and the involvement of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Crown corporations in the sponsorship program Parts 9 to 14 focus on the activities of various persons involved in the sponsorship advertising contracts entered into with the federal government Part 15 examines the activities of the director of the Public Works advertising section after his retirement The final part draws conclusions about assigning responsibility for identified irregularities misconduct Appendices include an index of names a chronology of events a copy of the Auditor General s 2003 report a schedule of witnesses and commission rulings The Guardian Index ,1993
