and an inspiring artist gallery of completed works The Flavor of Wisconsin Harva Hachten, Terese Allen, 2013-09-03
The Wisconsin Historical Society published Harva Hachten's The Flavor of Wisconsin in 1981. It immediately became an invaluable resource on Wisconsin foods and foodways. This updated and expanded edition explores the multitude of changes in the food culture since the 1980s. It will find new audiences while continuing to delight the book's many fans. And it will stand as a legacy to author Harva Hachten, who was at work on the revised edition at the time of her death in April 2006. While in many ways the first edition of The Flavor of Wisconsin has stood the test of time very well, food-related culture and business have changed immensely in the twenty-five years since its publication. Well-known regional food expert and author Terese Allen examines aspects of food cooking and eating that have changed or emerged since the first edition, including the explosion of farmers markets, organic farming and sustainability, the slow food movement, artisanal breads, dairy, herb growers, and the like, and how relatively recent immigrants have contributed to Wisconsin's remarkably rich food scene.

Seasoned with a dash of Su's meticulously crafted poetry and even a recipe, this collection celebrates words, culture, food, and the human act of making that binds them all together. A literary gourmand's delight, Kirkus Reviews Su's soulful reflections call attention to the complex connections between place, cuisine, literature, and taste, and revealing interviews with Su open a window onto her creative process. This provides much to savor. Publishers Weekly: In this enchanting collection of essays and interviews, poet Adrienne Su reflects on her journey as a creative writer and avid home cook, beginning at a neighbor's dinner table in 1980s Atlanta, lingering over poems, poets, and connections between food and literature, and ending in her 2023 kitchen in central Pennsylvania. In Hot Sour Salty Sweet, Adrienne Su contemplates her own use of food as a recurring metaphor, influential teachers and peers, the push and pull between cooking and writing, changing expectations around English usage, and craft questions such as "Why does some subject matter refuse to cooperate in the creative process even when it appears close to home? How does one write a good
