Study Guide For Terry Eagleton Ideology:

Encountering Religion Tyler Roberts, 2013-09-17 Tyler Roberts encourages scholars to abandon rigid conceptual oppositions between secular and religious to better understand how human beings actively and thoughtfully engage with their worlds and make meaning. The artificial distinction between a self-conscious and critical academic study of religion and an ideological and authoritarian religion he argues only obscures the phenomenon. Instead, Roberts calls on intellectuals to approach the field as a site of encounter and response, illuminating the agency, creativity, and critical awareness of religious actors. To respond to religion is to ask what religious behaviors and representations mean to us in our individual worlds, and scholars must confront questions of possibility and becoming that arise from testing their beliefs, imperatives, and practices. Roberts refers to the work of Hent de Vries, Eric Santner, and Stanley Cavell, each of whom exemplifies encounter and response in their writings as they traverse philosophy and religion to expose secular thinking to religious thought and practice. This approach highlights the resources religious discourse can offer to a fundamental reorientation of critical thought. In humanistic criticism after secularism, the lines separating the creative, the pious, and the critical themselves become the subject of question and experimentation.

Allegory, Space and the Material World in the Writings of Edmund Spenser Christopher Burlinson, 2006 An examination of the way in which the material world is depicted in The Faerie Queene. This book provides a radical reassessment of Spenserian allegory in particular of The Faerie Queene in the light of contemporary historical and theoretical interests in space and material culture. It explores the ambiguous and fluctuating attention to materiality, objects, and substance in the poetics of The Faerie Queene and discusses the way that Spenser's creation of allegorical meaning makes use of this materiality and transforms it. It suggests further that a critical engagement with materiality, which has been so important to the recent study of early modern drama, must come in the case of allegorical narrative through a study of narrative and physical space, and in this context it goes on to provide a reading of the spatial dimensions of the poem: quests and battles, forests, castles, and hovels, and the spatial characteristics of Spenser's other writings. The book reaffirms the need to place Spenser in his historical contexts: philosophical and scientific, military and architectural in early modern England, Ireland, and Europe, but also provides a critical reassessment of this literary historicism. Dr. CHRISTOPHER BURLINSON is a Research Fellow in English at Emmanuel College, Cambridge.

Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E. Rock, 2017-05-25 Ian E. Rock demonstrates that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the face of death. Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace, and not Rome's peace, that is important; that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord, and to the kingdom of God, not Jupiter and Rome, leads to salvation; that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord, and not from the benefactions of the Emperor. If the resurrection of Jesus, the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire, demonstrates God's power over the universe and death, the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is One and Lord of all is still in charge of the world The Conflict Myth and the Biblical Tradition

Debra Scoggins Ballentine, 2015-06-01 In The Conflict Myth and the Biblical Tradition Debra Scoggins Ballentine analyzes the ancient west Asian theme of divine combat between a victorious warrior deity and his enemy typically the sea or a sea dragon
