What's new about this?

What Makes a Country Rich?

A key product of the Scottish Enlightenment, The Wealth of Nations offers a systematic analysis of economics on the national level, exploring the interrelated issues of labor, trade, taxation, and monetary policy. Despite its famous and influential Smith's famous concepts like laissez-faire and invisible hand of classical economic theory.

Division of Labor

Division of labor is the process by which the tasks of an organization are divided into smaller, more specialized tasks.

Invisible Hand

The invisible hand is a metaphor for the self-regulating nature of the marketplace. It is the idea that individuals acting in their own self-interest will, through the process of competition, create a more efficient and prosperous society.

Political Economy

Political economy is the study of the relationship between politics and economics. It is the study of how government policy affects the economy and how the economy affects government policy.
