Harvey H. Honig, 2022-05-17 Harvey H. Honig began his life's work as a Lutheran minister but soon recognized his need for a more spacious and inclusive approach through which to heal and understand his inner self This led him to spend many years exploring and experiencing other paths of religion and spirituality In recent years though he found that the message mission and being of Jesus still played a powerful and transformative role in his life Since common understandings of the life of Jesus are embedded within a biblical and historical framework Honig wanted to explore the meaning of Christianity within the framework of our current world An Interfaith Christian Theology is for fellow seekers who are drawn to the being and message of Jesus but can no longer relate to the dissonance between reality and belief that so many churches require Honig's approach differs from traditional Christian theology in two ways first it does not stem from the framework of a specific denomination and second it presents itself as a way of thinking about Christianity rather than the only way After several years as a minister Honig began Jungian analytic training and earned a PhD in psychology at Loyola University Chicago Jung gave Honig the tools he needed to continue his personal search for a life affirming view of Christianity and to assist others in
