Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children

Educational Leadership through a Practice Lens Jane Wilkinson, 2021-12-15 This book provides the theoretical and analytical resources for an urgent rethinking of the social project of educating and educational leading It examines what educational leadership is namely the politics and power of leadership as a practice and what it can and should be offering a pedagogical and praxis informed approach to educational practice Drawing on research conducted at various Australian schools and education districts it argues for a reframing of educational leadership as pedagogical practice praxis to transform theorising and practice in the field The book provides a rich account of educational leading through a practice lens bringing into dialogue the theory of practice architectures with site ontologies Bourdieu s thinking tools and feminist critical scholarship The book tracks the practices and praxis of educational leaders as they grapple with the changing landscape and forces of educational policies that have informed Australian education It reimagines education leadership by integrating Continental and Northern European understandings of pedagogy and praxis as being morally and ethically informed as opposed to the narrower Anglophone notions of pedagogy as teaching and learning The book adds to the body of knowledge on the actual work of leadership as a distinct set of practices that is morally and ethically informed Readers will find a more holistic understanding of educational leadership practice and praxis based on the everyday accounts of educational leaders teachers and students in schools and education districts

Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders , Re-centering the Critical Potential of Nordic School Leadership Research Lejf Moos, Elisabet Nihlfors, Jan Merok Paulsen, 2020-10-19 This volume contributes significantly to the ongoing international and Nordic paradigm shift in educational leadership research It advocates for going from a contemporary mainstream functionalist paradigm to a reflexive paradigm based on educational values and knowledge The volume is built on the shared basis that the purpose of education is and must be fundamental for school leadership practice However that is often forgotten in educational governance and policy The basis of the argument is that educational leadership needs to change from focusing on effectiveness and narrowly defined accountability towards focusing on leadership that is contributing to the general education of students That entails that leadership research need to focus on complex perspectives like context relations trust sense making and social and human values and less on control outcomes accountability and testing The volume reminds readers about the need to raise awareness of the contexts of education and research be they political cultural economic or ideological Chapters analyze discuss and compare research from Nordic educational leadership research systems Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden The cross system insights clarify the fundamental relations between policy governance and research practice are and discuss forgotten dependencies and opportunities

Race-Conscious Caring in Educational Leadership Michael G. Gunzenhauser, Osly J. Flores, Michael W. Quigley, This book describes a model for educational leadership ethics that provides a critical reflective vision of what education can be for all children in K 12 schools The authors of Race Conscious Caring in Educational Leadership conducted interviews with 22 school leaders who shared their visions toward serving students of color The resulting model is built around the four features demonstrated by the strongest leaders race consciousness critical caring justice leadership and ethical praxis Race conscious caring leaders go beyond their good intentions to develop deep understanding of the needs and interests of their students they learn about racial identities and histories as strengths and sources of learning and they provide opportunities for educational experiences that are routinely denied to marginalized and minoritized students This book provides numerous examples of race conscious caring leaders with key analysis of where leaders fall short It is designed to help future and current leaders to critically reflect on their own experiences challenging them to build their capacity for transformative change Book Features Provides instructors with a unique text that integrates equity leadership and professional ethics Describes a comprehensive model that challenges leaders to improve across multiple dimensions especially if they are strong in some areas and not as strong in others Presents the ideal for each part of the model along with examples of partial fulfillment and what it looks like when a leader evidences very few of the ideals Incorporates examples and excerpts from school leaders who demonstrate varied levels of engagement with the model to help readers see themselves in the various categories Addresses the challenges today s leaders are facing due to policies and political climates working to pull back on equity work

Multiculturalism and Multilingualism at the Crossroads of School Leadership Jon C. Veenis, Sylvia Robertson, Jami Royal Berry, 2020-10-01 This volume builds upon emergent understandings about educational leadership and policy in hopes of continuing to refine our understanding of what effective leadership means in linguistically and culturally diverse school contexts The volume seeks to entrench a deeper understanding of the broader leadership policies and practices that promote the success of linguistically and culturally diverse students while also recognizing that effective leadership can be highly dependent on context It offers original empirical research that enhances an understanding of the interdependencies between leadership culture language and policy i e the mechanisms that engender or hinder successful stewardship of linguistic and cultural plurality The confluence of school leadership linguistic diversity and multiculturalism makes this volume unique especially considering the pace at which global migration continues to accelerate coupled with the need to accommodate an array of diverse learning needs in today s schools

The Practices of School Middle Leadership Peter Grootenboer, 2018-06-07 This book uses practice theory to examine the role of middle leadership In particular it investigates the practices of leading in the middle in the cultural discursive material economic and social political domains i e the sayings doings and relatings of middle leading This perspective acknowledges the ecological arrangement of leading practices in schools and the necessity of considering the unavoidable reality of the site The analysis is used to promote the need to view leading in the middle as a form of praxis a morally and ethically informed practice that requires thoughtful decision making and action in situations where the outcomes are not always clear This book focuses on the practice of leading for those in middle management positions in primary and secondary schools such as those responsible for curriculum leadership including senior teachers assistant principals and curriculum leaders In their positions that bridge management and the classroom they are significant leaders in promoting and sustaining effective pedagogy for good learning outcomes and they have to continue to provide high quality teaching in their own classrooms while simultaneously being a mentor coach supporter and evaluator for their colleagues

School Leadership for Democratic Education in South Africa Tsediso Michael Makoelle, Thabo Makhalemele., Pierre du Plessis, 2021-07-29 School Leadership for Democratic Education in South Africa explores the democratization and modernization of education in South Africa analyzing the state of school leadership in South African schools from the time of the new democratic education dispensation in 1994 to the present day. The book maps out what the future of education in South Africa could look like and explores the most conducive educational environments for change in South African schools. It adopts a critical approach to analyzing leadership and management in the context of school governance, school effectiveness, teacher development, multiculturalism, and equity in education. Contributions explore the democratization and modernization of education in South Africa through examining different perspectives, achievements, and challenges, and also consider issues around access to technology, language policy, and the curriculum, along with new literature on selected aspects of leadership. This book will be of great interest for researchers, scholars, and students in the fields of educational leadership, sociology of education, and teacher education.

Future Alternatives for Educational Leadership Deborah M. Netolicky, 2021-09-01. This book offers provocations for what is now and what is next in educational leadership, simultaneously bringing the field both back to its basics of equity, democracy, humanity, and education for all, and forward to productive, innovative, and necessary possibilities. Written during the pandemic reality of 2020, this collection shares the global voices and expertise of prominent and emerging leaders, scholars, and practitioners in education from the UK, the United States, South America, Canada, Europe, Australia, and the Middle East. The authors engage with the complexities and uncertainties of leading in education. They examine research, reflections, and real stories from which school leaders, education system leaders, policymakers, and researchers in the field of educational leadership can learn, and in which they will find honesty, authority, and inspiration to guide the future of the field. The new perspectives and hopeful alternatives presented in this outstanding book are essential to researchers, school leaders, and policymakers, and are key to advancing education into positive and democratic futures. Research-Practice Partnerships Laura Wentworth, Paula Arce-Trigatti, Carrie Conaway, Samantha Shewchuk, 2023-05-26. Educational leaders, researchers, and community members have found collaborating on research supports improvement in their schools, districts, and the wider community, but how do we go about developing these partnerships? With essential tools, frameworks, and tips for brokering in research-practice partnerships (RPPs), this practical book provides guidance on cultivating and sustaining impactful relationships and supportive infrastructure with partners. Through the careful brokering of these partnerships, RPP brokers can bridge the gap between education research and practice, bringing people together to build a more equitable educational system. Written by RPP leaders, researchers, and professionals, this handbook explores how brokering can support the production and use of partnership research, develop and nurture meaningful relationships even in the face of challenging circumstances, build individual competencies to manage an RPP, and strengthen the partnership. Develop partnership governance, implement effective administrative structures, design processes and communications routines, assess and continuously improve the partnership. This is an essential read for any educational leader, higher education faculty, researcher, or other community member who wants to understand the types of activities and responsibilities required of an RPP broker and the strategies to become an effective broker of RPPs aimed at educational improvement and equitable transformation The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
