

The Basics of Taxes Note Taking Guide

Q1 answer: How that principle goes down from your bank notes during the process

What's your tax rate?

What are taxes?

A sum of money (usually $\frac{1}{100}$ of the value of the goods or services) that is paid to the government by the citizens.

Amount paid by taxpayers. Most are levied on a person's income or the value of his property or transactions.

How do you benefit from the taxes you pay?

The answer is that taxes go higher than the level of living in a community that is paid.

What is a community?

A group of people who live in the same place and have the same interests.

What are the taxes?

A sum of money that is paid to the government by the citizens.

What are the benefits of taxes?

Health, education, security, defense, social services, transportation, police, fire, national security, government services, etc.

Taxes are a financial burden for a community, but they are also a source of funds for the government to provide services, justice and the opportunity to improve the community and the lives of its citizens.
