Fyodor Dostoyevsky

The Brothers Karamazov A Novel In Four Parts With Epilogue:

The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky,1992 The violent lives of three sons are exposed when their father is murdered and each one attempts to come to terms with his guilt The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoevsky,1990-09-12

The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky,1922 The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2003-02-27 The most magnificent novel ever written Sigmund Freud The murder of brutal landowner Fyodor Karamazov changes the lives of his sons irrevocably Mitya the sensualist whose bitter rivalry with his father immediately places him under suspicion for parricide Ivan the intellectual driven to breakdown the spiritual Alyosha who tries to heal the family s rifts and the shadowy figure of their bastard half brother Smerdyakov Dostoyevsky s dark masterwork evokes a world where the lines between innocence and corruption good and evil blur and everyone s faith in humanity is tested Translated with an Introduction and notes by DAVID McDUFF The Novels of Fyodor Dostoevsky: The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoyevsky,1926

Thomas Mann and Shakespeare Tobias Döring,Ewan Fernie,2017-08-24 The first ever comparative reading of Shakespeare and Thomas Mann in view of key questions in modern culture The Demonic Ewan Fernie,2013-02-11 Are we either good or bad and do we really know the difference Why do we want what we cannot have and even to be what we re not Can we desire others without wanting to possess them Can we open to others and not risk possession ourselves And where in these cases do we draw the line Ewan Fernie argues that the demonic tradition in literature offers a key to our most agonised and intimate experiences The Demonic ranges across the breadth of Western culture engaging with writers as central and various as Luther Shakespeare Hegel Dostoevsky Melville and Mann A powerful foreword by Jonathan Dollimore brings out its implications as an intellectual and stylistic breakthrough into new ways of writing criticism Fernie unfolds an intense and personal vision not just of Western modernity but of identity morality and sex As much as it s concerned with the great works this is a book about life Demystifying Evil Ingrid Faro,2023-12-05 How can we understand God s work in a world permeated with evil Narrating her own wrestling with evil as well as engaging in biblical and philosophical analysis biblical scholar Ingrid Faro explores the many dimensions to evil in a way that is soberly honest biblically engaged and theologically nuanced The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell,2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith the psychological mechanics of these effects their resonances with Christian Scripture and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post traumatic resilience Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery Caring for the Harvest Force in the New Millennium Tom A. Steffen,F. Douglas P.

Pennoyer,2001-09-15 This volume continues the EMS Series with selected presentations from the November 2000 annual meeting Caring for the Harvest Force in the New Millennium presents the theological foundations challenges and contexts for caring for those in full time Christian service Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction Thom Dancer, 2021 From climate catastrophe to pandemics and economic crises the problems facing humanity are dizzyingly complex and increasingly planetary in scale Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction argues for contemporary fiction's capacity to help those who may feel despair at the enormity of such problems not as one might think through the ambitious search for grand solutions but rather by inculcating a temperament of modesty This new temperament of critical modesty locates the fight for freedom and human dignity within the limited and compromised conditions in which we find ourselves Through readings of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith J M Coetzee and David Mitchell this volume shows how contemporary works of literature model modesty as a critical temperament Exploring modest forms of entangled human agency that represent an alternative to the novel of the large scale that have been most closely associated with the Anthropocene it makes the surprising yet compelling case that precisely by adopting a modest stance the novel actually has the potential to play a more important socio cultural role In doing so the book offers an engaging response to the debate over critical and surface readings bringing novels into the conversation and arguing for a fictional mode that is both critical and modest reminding us how much we are already engaged with the world implicated and compromised before we start developing theories writing stories or acting within it

The Soul of a Nation Bernard J. Coughlin, 2012-09-27 Since World War II there have been many changes in our nation due to shifts in our philosophy of man and moral law The Soul of a Nation is a series of essays on these critical transformations in our society This book will be of interest to citizens and scholars who question our society's political drift in recent years The Soul of a Nation was written not only for scholars and students but for their parents and elders as well The Crisis of Meaning and the Life-World Lubica Učník, 2016-12-15 In The Crisis of Meaning and the Life-World U n k examines the existential conflict that formed the focus of Edmund Husserl's final work which she argues is very much with us today how to reconcile scientific rationality with the meaning of human existence To investigate this conundrum she places Husserl in dialogue with three of his most important successors Martin Heidegger Hannah Arendt and Jan Pato ka For Husserl 1930s Europe was characterized by a growing irrationalism that threatened to undermine its legacy of rational inquiry Technological advancement in the sciences Husserl argued had led science to forget its own foundations in the primary life world the world of lived experience Renewing Husserl's concerns in today's context U n k first provides an original and compelling reading of his oeuvre through the lens of the formalization of the sciences then traces the unfolding of this problem through the work of Heidegger Arendt and Pato ka Although many scholars have written on Arendt none until now has connected her philosophical thought with that of Czech phenomenologist Jan Pato ka U n k provides invaluable access to the work of the latter who remains understudied in the English language She shows that together these four thinkers offer new challenges to the way we approach key issues confronting us today providing us with ways to reconsider truth freedom and human responsibility in the face of the postmodern critique of metanarratives and a growing philosophical interest in new forms of materialism Hermeneutics - Ethics - Education Andrzej Wiercinski, 2015 This book confronts the challenges that hermeneutics brings to ethics and education by thematizing the critical influence which ethics and contemporary educational theory and practice have on the self understanding of philosophical hermeneutics In the hermeneutic spirit of commitment to cultivating lifelong habits of critical thinking moral reflection and articulate expression the book presents many voices that illuminate a rich cultural diversity with the profound hope of nurturing the full flourishing of human beings The hermeneutics of education calls for diverse ways of thinking about education which deeply cares for the common good of individuals communities and nations This diversity promotes a genuine interest in different approaches to the event Ereignis of education Series International Studies in Hermeneutics and Phenomenology Vol 8 Subject Hermeneutics Ethics Education

Choosing Our Religion Elizabeth Drescher, 2016-03-01 To the dismay of religious leaders study after study has shown a steady decline in affiliation and identification with traditional religions in America By 2014 more than twenty percent of adults identified as unaffiliated up more than seven percent just since 2007 Even more startling more than thirty percent of those under the age of thirty now identify as Nones answering none when queried about their religious affiliation Is America losing its religion Or as more and more Americans choose different spiritual paths are they changing what it means to be religious in the United States today In Choosing Our Religion Elizabeth Drescher explores the diverse complex spiritual lives of Nones across generations and across categories of self identification such as Spiritual But Not Religious Atheist Agnostic Humanist just Spiritual and more Drawing on more than one hundred interviews conducted across the United States Drescher opens a window into the lives of a broad cross section of Nones diverse with respect to age gender race sexual orientation and prior religious background She allows Nones to speak eloquently for themselves illuminating the processes by which they became None the sources of information and inspiration that enrich their spiritual lives the practices they find spiritually meaningful how prayer functions in spiritual lives not centered on doctrinal belief how morals and values are shaped outside of institutional religions and how Nones approach the spiritual development of their own children These compelling stories are deeply revealing about how religion is changing in America both for Nones and for the religiously affiliated family friends and neighbors with whom their lives remain intertwined The Challenge of Evil William Greenway, 2016-12-02 Belief in God in the face of suffering is one of the most intractable problems of Christian theology Many respond to the spiritual challenge of evil by ignoring it blaming God or insisting on the inherent meaninglessness of life In this book William Greenway contends that we don't have to deny our moral selves by either ignoring evil or abandoning our moral sensibilities toward it We can open our eyes fully to suffering and evil and our own complicity in them We can do so because it is only in this full acceptance of the world's guilt and our own that we make ourselves fully open to agape to being seized by love of others and God Inspired by the Jewish philosopher Emmanuel Levinas and the Christian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky The Challenge of Evil lovingly explains how we can look squarely at the overwhelming suffering in the world and still by grace have faith in a good and loving God New Wine Tastings Paul Louis Metzger,2011-01-01 This collection of essays provides samplings of a theological engagement of culture that Paul Louis Metzger has been developing over the years in his work as founder and director of The Institute for the Theology of Culture New Wine New Wineskins at Multnomah Biblical Seminary of Multnomah University Metzger espouses an incarnational over against a predominantly worldview oriented or market driven theological approach to engaging culture and situates his work in Trinitarian communal and co missional thought forms This volume of biblically and theologically framed and compassion driven essays addresses such themes as postmodernity structural evil cultural genocide sexuality HIV AIDS the prison system the global slave trade and the arts It will be welcomed by those analyzing and developing theological cultural paradigms and engaging key issues in the contemporary setting The Kingdom of Cain Andrew Klavan,2025-05-06 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Andrew Klavan explores how artists imaginative engagement with the darkness can point the way to living beautifully in the midst of a tragic world Andrew Klavan s book illuminates even as it explores the deepest darkness finding truth and beauty in art born of unflinching confrontations with evil Daniel McCarthy editor in chief Modern Age In his USA Today bestselling The Truth and Beauty Andrew Klavan explored how the work of great poets helps illuminate the truth of the gospels Now the award winning screenwriter and crime novelist turns his attention to the dark side of human nature to discover how we might find joy and beauty in the world while still being clear eyed about the evil found in it The Kingdom of Cain looks at three murders in history including the first murder Cain s killing of his brother Abel and at the art created from imaginative engagement with those horrific events by artists ranging from Fyodor Dostoevsky to Alfred Hitchcock To make beauty out of the world as it is shot through with evil and injustice and suffering is the task not just of the artist but Klavan argues of every life rightly lived Examining how that transformation occurs in art grants us a vision for how it can happen in our lives Klavan eloquently argues that it is possible to be clear eyed about the evil in the world while remaining hope filled about God s ability to redeem it all Nourishing the Inner Life of Clinicians and Humanitarians Donna M. Orange,2015-11-19 Winner of the Clinical category of the American Board but they also show us the daily discipline of spiritual self care although these examples rely heavily on the discipline of spiritual reading other practitioners will find inspiration in music visual arts or elsewhere and replenish the resources regularly Nourishing the Inner Life of Clinicians and Humanitarians will help psychoanalysts to develop a language with which to converse about ethics and the responsibility of the therapist analyst This is an exceptional contribution highly suitable for practitioners and students of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy

Dialectics and the Sublime in Underhill's Mysticism Peter Chong-Beng Gan,2015-04-29 This book represents a study of Evelyn Underhill s premier work on mysticism using Hegel s dialectics and Kant s theory of the sublime as interpretive tools It especially focuses on two prominent features of Underhill s text the description of the mystical life as one permeated by an intense love between the mystic and infinite reality and the detailed delineation of stages of mystical development Given these two features the text lends itself to a construction of a valuable discourse predicated on dialecticism sublimity and mysticism The book also articulates a number of insights into the content and nature of the writings of Christian mystics
