"Scrutiny" Francis Mulhern, 2020-05-05 Few thinkers have had more impact on English speaking culture in the twentieth century than the late F R Leavis 1895 1978 Paradoxically his literary critical studies and the cultural ideas associated with them have become pervasive influences whilst losing none of their power of provocation Yet amidst the extremes of admiration and hostility that his name attracts in academic circles and beyond on Left and Right alike little serious attention has been given to what was his most audacious and significant venture the journal Scrutiny whose chief editor he was for twenty years until its closure in 1953 The specific history of this fascinating cultural enterprise is now studied for the first time in The Moment of Scrutiny Beginning with an analysis of Scrutiny's emergence in the complex historical conditions of inter war England Francis Mulhern goes on to recount the work of the journal Elucidating the logic of the project that it served he demonstrates its coherence of purpose while at the same time tracing the successive mutations that its discourse underwent in the changing politico cultural conjunctures of its lifetime A final chapter situates Scrutiny comparatively in the context of early twentieth century European thought considers its specific function in the cultural history of mid century England and the enigmas of its last years and after life and moves finally to an assessment of its significance today
