The Bible in Arabic Sidney H. Griffith, 2013-07-21 From the first centuries of Islam to well into the Middle Ages Jews and Christians produced hundreds of manuscripts containing portions of the Bible in Arabic Until recently however these translations remained largely neglected by Biblical scholars and historians In telling the story of the Bible in Arabic this book casts light on a crucial transition in the cultural and religious life of Jews and Christians in Arabic speaking lands In pre Islamic times Jewish and Christian scriptures circulated orally in the Arabic speaking milieu After the rise of Islam and the Qur'an's appearance as a scripture in its own right Jews and Christians translated the Hebrew Bible and the Greek New Testament into Arabic for their own use and as a response to the Qur'an's retelling of Biblical narratives From the ninth century onward a steady stream of Jewish and Christian translations of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament crossed communal borders to influence the Islamic world The Bible in Arabic offers a new frame of reference for the pivotal place of Arabic Bible translations in the religious and cultural interactions between Jews Christians and Muslims Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions

The Memory of the Temple and the Making of the Rabbis Naftali S. Cohn, 2013-01-09 When the rabbis composed the Mishnah in the late second or early third century C E the Jerusalem Temple had been destroyed for more than a century Why then do the Temple and its ritual feature so prominently in the Mishnah Against the view that the rabbis were reacting directly to the destruction and asserting that nothing had changed Naftali S Cohn argues that the memory of the Temple served a political function for the rabbis in their own time They described the Temple and its ritual in a unique way that helped to establish their authority within the context of Roman dominance At the time the Mishnah was created the rabbis were not the only ones talking extensively about the Temple other Judaeans including followers of Jesus Christians and even Roman emperors produced texts and other cultural artifacts centered on the Jerusalem Temple Looking back at the procedures of Temple ritual the rabbis created in the Mishnah a past and a Temple in their own image which lent legitimacy to their claim to be the only authentic purveyors of Jewish tradition and the traditional Jewish way of life Seizing on the Temple they sought to establish and consolidate their own position of importance within the complex social and religious landscape of Jewish
