Left flat broke by her ex boyfriend she is desperate to earn some fast money. When the desirable Thatcher Smith owner of Nantucket's hottest restaurant is the only one to offer her a job she wonders if she can get by with no restaurant experience. Thatcher gives Adrienne a crash course in the business and they share an instant attraction. But there is a mystery about their situation: what is it about Fiona the Blue Bistro's chef that captures Thatcher's attention again and again? And why does such a successful restaurant seem to be in its final season before closing its doors for good? Despite her uncertainty, Adrienne must decide whether to open her heart for the first time or move on as she always does. Infused with intimate Nantucket detail and filled with the warmth of passion and the breeze of doubt, The Blue Bistro is perfect summer reading.

Should she open her heart for the first time or move on as she always does? In The Love Season, Marguerite Beale, former chef of culinary hot spot Les Parapluies, has been out of the public eye for over a decade. But this all changes with a phone call from her goddaughter Renata Knox, whom Marguerite has not seen since the death of Renata's mother fourteen years earlier. Now that Renata is on Nantucket visiting the family of her new fiancé, she takes the opportunity to contact Marguerite in hopes of learning the story of her own mother's life and death.
