

Name _____ Date _____

Song Lyrics Book Report February

Step One – You should select your fiction novel no later than _____. Remember, your book needs to be within your reading range and should be challenging enough to last you the majority of the month.

Which book did you pick? Title: _____ Author: _____

Step Two – Plan a reading schedule for your novel. Make sure you give yourself enough time to complete the project, not just the reading. Consider your timing last month when planning your reading for this month.
How many pages should you read each week to stay on track? _____

Step Three – Think about the theme, main events, and the main characters in your story. Please feel free to use as much creativity as you'd like when creating this project, but remember, this is the student's project. If you need help with supplies, please let me know as early as possible.

Here is what your song lyrics should include:

- Album Cover/Illustration:
 - Design an album cover for your song. The cover should include a song title (title of the book), the artist's name (author), and the student's name. It should also include a hand-drawn illustration or graphic that relates to the story in a significant way.
- Format:
 - Your song lyrics should be typed or neatly written. Lyrics should follow the format and structure of an already existing song. (Be sure to include song title and artist of the song you are using.) Lyrics should be visibly separated into lines for each of the three verses and the chorus. The title and artist (author) should be listed at the top of the page.
- Verses:
 - Your song should include at least 3 separate verses. The first verse should introduce the character(s) and beginning events of the novel. The second verse should discuss events from the middle of the novel, and the third verse should cover the end results or conclusion of the novel. If additional verses are used, all should be in chronological order. Each verse should follow a similar rhyme scheme and syllable count to that of the original version.
- Chorus:
 - The chorus of your song should be located between each of the verses, appearing at least 2 times. (Some song versions may have the chorus repeated at the very beginning or end of the song. If your song follows this format, you may choose whether or not to include it in that way.) The content of the chorus should focus on the main idea of the story, lessons learned by the character, repeated events, common themes, or other significant features that apply to the novel as a whole. It should not include specific details from the text that do not apply to the main idea of the novel.

Step Four – You will present your song lyrics to your classmates the day it is due. If you choose to sing, you may, however reading the lyrics is acceptable as well.
