Trauma, Memory and Silence of the Irish Woman in Contemporary Literature Madalina Armie,Veronica Membrive,2023-01-30 This volume studies the manifestations of female trauma through the exploration of multiple wounds inflicted on both body and mind Caruth 1996 3 and the soul of Irish women from Northern Ireland and the Republic within a contemporary context and in literary works written at the turn of the twenty first century and beyond These artistic manifestations connect tradition and modernity debunk myths break the silence with the exposure of uncomfortable realities dismantle stereotypes and reflect reality with precision Women s issues and female experiences depicted in contemporary fiction may provide an explanation for past and present gender dynamics revealing a pathway for further renegotiation of gender roles and the achievement of equilibrium and equality between sexes These works might help to seal and heal wounds both old and new and offer solutions to the quandaries of tomorrow

The Irish Short Story at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Madalina Armie,2022-12-30 In the mid 1990s Ireland was experiencing the best of times The Celtic Tiger seemed to instil in the national consciousness that poverty was a problem of the past The impressive economic performance ensured that the Republic occupied one of the top positions among the world s economic powers During the boom dissident voices continuously criticised what they considered to be a mirage identifying the precariousness of its structures and foretelling its eventual crash The 2008 recession proved them right Throughout this time the Irish contemporary short story expressed distrust Enabled by its capacity to reflect change with immediacy and dexterity the short story saw through the smokescreen created by the Celtic Tiger discourse of well being It reinterpreted and captured the worst and the best of the country and became a bridge connecting tradition and modernity The major objective of this book is to analyse the interactions between fiction and reality during this period in Ireland by studying the short stories written by old and emergent voices published between the birth of the Celtic Tiger in 1995 up to its immediate aftermath in 2013
