Reading Roddy Doyle Caramine White, 2001-06-01 Roddy Doyle is one of the most popular Irish writers at work today His book Paddy Clarke Ha Ha Ha won the Booker Prize and The Commitments The Snapper and The Van have all been made into feature films In this first critical look at his oeuvre Caramine White explores Doyle's innovative use of language his employment of humor to further his characters development and manipulate his audience the role however slight that religion and politics play in his writing and Doyle's overall social vision as projected in each book and as part of a complete body of work Prominent aspects of each novel are brought to light for instance the function of music in The Commitments the importance of humor to diffuse tension in The Snapper the growing realism and deeper character development in The Van the use of double writing in Paddy Clarke and the symbolic significance of Paula's life as a metaphor for the abuses women suffer in a patriarchal society in The Woman Who Walked into Doors White also discusses his recent novel the critically acclaimed A Star Called Henry She completes the volume with a transcription of an extensive interview with the author that reveals many facets of Doyle's life reflected in his writing

A Love of Reading Robert Adams, 2011-01-14 Every year Robert Adams prepares a series of five reviews of contemporary novels to be delivered alone on a theatre stage to sold out audiences in Toronto and Montreal In A Love of Reading Adams has now gathered 18 of his most brilliant reviews from Jack Maggs by Peter Carey and The Poisonwood Bible by Barbara Kingsolver to A Fine Balance by Rohinton Mistry and Barney's Version by Mordecai Richler In them he skillfully interweaves a nimble and entertaining discussion of plot theme and characterization with fascinating historical biographical and literary context He is repeatedly drawn to the spectacle of less than perfect humans making their way in a hostile world and as a result a review by Robert Adams is almost always a hugely satisfying mix of rich pathos and abundant humour Famously Adams reads a book a day from which he selects only those novels that are truly extraordinary that have made him see some part of the world or some aspect of the human condition in a new light because for Adams the best books always take the reader on a journey with a destination very distant from the point of departure It should be not only a journey of discovery an exploration of the author's vision but also of risk By matching one's own vision to that of the author says Adams the reader enters an exciting negotiation to produce a new vision of his own This joint enterprise between reader and writer the shared risk and the wonder of discovery is the foundation of A Love of Reading For the last six years Robert Adams has presented an annual series of book reviews to sold out audiences Eighty per cent of Adams 3 000 subscribers in Toronto and Montreal renew for the following season This book is a selection of modern classics from a discriminating and entertaining guide Perfect for reading groups Quill Quire noting the jump in sales of any book reviewed by Adams has called the phenomenon The Adams Effect
