A House and its Atmosphere Ben Jacks,2018-01-15 A House and its Atmosphere is a meditative essay about the experience of designing and building a house of one s own Told in seventy black and white photographs and a series of narrative excursions architect Ben Jacks reflects on a lifetime of influences as he reveals the personal nature of inhabiting a place at the edge of a tidal cove on an island in Maine In the book he quietly advocates for the simple logic and modest ease of direct experience and an observational perspective in architecture In chapters about imagining walking and designing Ben Jacks reflects on the essence of architectural experience describing what it is like to begin to make momentous decisions arguing that aesthetic experience is the result of how one has learned to see Memory family nature relationships and work inform design at every step A House and its Atmosphere is a grounded story about designing and building a small work of architecture With students of architecture and amateur builders in mind Ben Jacks makes a case for design informed by theories of place identification detail and craft The book is a primary source and a chronicle of experience of radical empiricism As such it offers a kind of conceptual tool kit for those interested in thinking about the processes of architecture designing and placemaking The book is a fresh and valuable contribution to the shelter memoir genre from a professional architect s perspective signature completely unapologetic honesty from growing up with triplet brothers to building a career in comedy from his fear of moths to some of his more daring Grindr sexcapades He invites you into his personal creative universe where wearing a wig to make random videos and screaming swearwords at resin pendants somehow turn out to be great decisions Leave Me Alone is a story of breaking the mould and embracing exactly who you are even if that means telling people to leave you the f k alone I only enjoyed the parts I was in skip to Chapter 8 EMMYLOU MACCARTHY Memoir - Geological Survey of Canada ,1915 The Doctor's Wyoming Children, a Family Memoir Woods Hocker Manley,1953 Songs of Myself Diane Scharper,1998 My Time in Hell Andrew D.
