Latinx Writing Los Angeles Ignacio López-Calvo, Victor Valle, Victor M. Valle, 2018-04-01 Latinx Writing Los Angeles offers a critical anthology of Los Angeles's most significant English language and Spanish language in translation nonfiction writing from the city's inception to the present Contemporary Latinx authors including three Pulitzer Prize winners and writers such as Harry Gamboa Jr Guillermo Gómez-Peña and Rubén Martínez focus on the ways in which Latinx Los Angeles's nonfiction narratives record the progressive racialization and subalternization of Latinxs in the southwestern United States While notions of racial memory coloniality biopolitics internal colonialism cultural assimilation Mexican or pan Latinx cultural nationalism and transnationalism permeate this anthology contributors advocate the idea of a contested modernity that refuses to accept mainstream cultural impositions proposing instead alternative ways of knowing and understanding Featuring a wide variety of voices as well as a diversity of subgenres this collection is the first to illuminate divergent hybrid Latinx histories and cultures Redefining Los Angeles's literary history and providing a new model for English Spanish and Latinx studies Latinx Writing Los Angeles is an essential contribution to southwestern and borderland studies The Routledge Companion to Latino/a Literature Suzanne Bost, Frances R. Aparicio, 2013 Latino a literature is one of the fastest developing fields in the discipline of literary studies It represents an identity that is characterized by fluidity and diversity often explored through divisions formed by language race gender sexuality and immigration The Routledge Companion to Latino a Literature represents over forty essays by leading and emerging international scholars of Latino a literature and analyses Regional cultural and sexual identities in Latino a literature Worldviews and traditions of Latino a cultural creation Latino a literature in different international contexts The impact of differing literary forms of Latino a literature The politics of canon formation in Latino a literature This collection provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of this literary culture Imaginative Possibilities Maceo Montoya, Javier O. Huerta, 2024-11-05 Two decades into the twenty first century contemporary Latinx writers have established themselves within an evolving literary tradition Imaginative Possibilities collects interviews with some of these authors to explore the writers processes aesthetics creative trajectories and places within the larger body of Latinx literature The interviews address artistic professional and cultural issues including the building of intellectual communities the writing and publication process and the practical economics of making a living US Latinx writers discuss how they navigate the overwhelmingly white publishing industry the academic book market higher education and MFA culture while exploring questions of representation hybridity and mestizaje Through these conversations a truth emerges Latinx literature speaks not with one voice but many California and the Melancholic American Identity in Joan Didion's Novels Katarzyna Nowak McNeice, 2018-12-07 California and the Melancholic American Identity in Joan Didion's Novels Exiled from Eden focuses on the concept of Californian identity in the fiction of Joan Didion This identity is understood as melancholic in the sense that the critics following the tradition of both Sigmund Freud and Walter Benjamin use the word The book traces the progress of the way Californian identity is portrayed in Joan Didion's novels starting with the first two in which California plays the central role Run River and Play It As It Lays through A Book of Common Prayer to Democracy and The Last Thing He Wanted where California functions only as a distant point of reference receding to the background of Didion's interests Curiously enough Didion presents Californian history as a history of white settlement disregarding whole chapters of the history of the region in which the Californios and Native Americans among other groups played a crucial role it is this reticence that the monograph sees as the main problem of Didion's fiction and presents it as the silent center of gravity in Didion's oeuvre The monograph proposes to see the melancholy expressed by Didion's fiction organized into four losses of Nature History Ethics and Language around which the main analytical chapters are constructed What remains unrepresented and silenced comes back to haunt Didion's fiction and it results in a melancholic portrayal of California and its identity which is the central theme this monograph addresses The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
