Brewer, Edan Galbraith, 2023-08-14 Foreword by Professor Tony Attwood Clinical Psychologist Ogwadabwah A Life Lived on the Spectrum takes readers on a chronological expos of a young man's life navigating the complexities of Asperger's Syndrome and other developmental and mental health diagnoses Delve into the profound impact that Edan's diagnoses have had on his family and friends Witness the modifications and adjustments required to cope with the unique challenges that arise From his early years as a happy and easily managed child to his transformation into a self harming offending and occasionally dangerous individual this memoir courageously explores an aspect of ASD literature and social media platforms rarely examined Through the pages Ogwadabwah the depths of Edan's emotions and the complexities of his experiences are revealed Intertwined within Edan's personal accounts are poignant anecdotes from contributors who share their own experiences These voices enrich the narrative and provide a multifaceted perspective on the challenges and triumphs of living with Asperger's Syndrome Prepare to be moved enlightened and inspired as you immerse yourself in this powerful real life story Edan's tale is a testament to the human spirit's ability to persevere find outlets for self expression and embrace a future filled with possibilities Sowing and Reaping: Whatever a man sows that shall he also reap. - Galatians 6:7 Dwight L. Moody, 2019-08-01 Do not deceive yourselves God is not mocked for whatever a man sows that shall he also reap For he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption but he that sows in the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life Galatians 6:7-8 We can't get away from the principle of reaping what we sow If we sow good seed we anticipate a great harvest But if we sow weeds we'll harvest no more than we sowed The same is true spiritually and practically If we want a reward in heaven we must live for Christ On the other hand if we lie cheat swear steal get drunk use drugs or otherwise fulfill the lusts of the flesh the reality is we'll pay the consequences both now and in eternity No matter how much society tries to convince us otherwise this law has proven to be true without fail This is the bright truth held before us in this little book if we sow good seed we will reap a great harvest While sowing and caring for the seed sown isn't without work the promise of a great harvest is what keeps us going and what brings joy to our labors Be assured that it is not in vain to spend much time pruning weeding and carefully watching over the garden of your heart and the hearts of those you love

Growing Up : A Story of the Girlhood of Judith Mackenzie Jennie M. Drinkwater, Growing Up A Story of the Girlhood of Judith Mackenzie I was not sure whether it were to write a book or to teach or to go as a foreign missionary I think I hoped it would be the foreign missionary because that was the most self sacrificing The book was all one great joy The teaching was absorbing but I must go away to study I was afraid to go away I did not like to go away from Bensalem I would

miss my mother away from Bensalem and you and all the parsonage and the whole village But I thought I was called as called as Roger was to preach or any woman saint or heroine who had done a great thing You cannot think what it was to me It made me old I wanted God to speak out of Heaven and tell me what to do It began to lose its selfishness after that The first thing that began to shake my confidence was something Mrs Lane said that afternoon she talked to Jean and me about what women were doing and could do She did not make woman s work attractive she took the heart out of me I did not know why she should do that I knew better all the time I knew what women had done and were doing I knew she was doing a noble work literary work work in prisons temperance work the instances she gave me seemed trivial as if she were laughing at me But something opened my eyes I felt that I might be disobedient to my heavenly vision that I was looking up into the heavens for my call and the voice might be all the time in my ear That was the night I came back here and found you so cozy and satisfied under your own roof tree with the voice in your ear and the work in your hand The world went away from me I stayed I am glad I stayed My only trouble is and it is a real trouble that God did not care for my purpose or my prayers that he has let them go as if they never entered into his mind I thought they were in his heart as well as mine
