Morrison Surinder Kaur,2015-11-26 Scientific Essay from the year 2015 in the subject American Studies Literature language English abstract The Bluest Eye is simple yet a difficult narrative of a twelve year old black girl Pecola s desire to have blue eyes The question arises why does a black girl want blue eyes Why does she want to look differently What causes this desire in her As the story unfolds we get answers to these questions and also a realization that how the simple things like cup images or candy wrappers can be a strong factor in influencing an individual s psychological response to beauty and his her own self importance The present paper while building on existing criticism tries to explore the popular culture for instance children items cups dolls candies and movies and its individual psychological response These commercial products play a pivotal role in establishing beauty aesthetics Regular exposure to these ideals results in their idealization and a longing in people to have these defining physical features of beauty It creates an environment of superiority and inferiority People who possess the defining features physical are considered superior to those who don t have these physical features This adversely affects their psyche and becomes a reason for their downfall Toni Morrison Box Set Toni

Morrison,2019-10-29 A box set of Toni Morrison s principal works featuring The Bluest Eye her first novel Beloved Pulitzer Prize winner and Song of Solomon National Book Critics Award winner Staring unflinchingly into the abyss of slavery Beloved transforms history into a story as powerful as Exodus and as intimate as a lullaby This spellbinding novel tells the story of Sethe a former slave who escapes to Ohio but eighteen years later is still not free In The New York Times bestselling novel The Bluest Eye Pecola Breedlove a young black girl prays every day for beauty and yearns for normalcy for the blond hair and blue eyes that she believes will allow her to finally fit in Yet as her dream grows more fervent her life slowly starts to disintegrate in the face of adversity and strife With Song of Solomon Morrison transfigures the coming of age story as she follows Milkman Dead from his rustbelt city to the place of his family s origins introducing an entire cast of strivers and seeresses liars and assassins the inhabitants of a fully realized black world This beautifully designed slipcase will make the perfect holiday and perennial gift Toni Morrison: The Bluest Eye ,2004-04-07 Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 A Southern Connecticut State University English Department language English abstract The Bluest Eye is Toni Morrison s first novel and was published in 1970 Toni Morrison uses modernist techniques of stream of consciousness multiple perspectives and deliberate fragmentation Two different narrators tell the story The first is

Claudia MacTeer who narrates in a mixture of a child's and an adult's perspectives and the second is an omniscient narrator Claudia's and Pecola's points of view are dominant but the reader also sees things from other characters' points of view The subtext of the first part of the novel Autumn and Winter suggests various topics In my presentation I mainly focus on the Dick and Jane narrative by means of which the novel opens Furthermore I will explore the themes whiteness as the standard of beauty and seeing versus being seen which are sometimes closely connected The Bluest Eye provides an extended depiction of the ways in which internalized white beauty standards deform the lives of black girls and women Implicit messages that whiteness is superior are everywhere including the white baby doll given to Claudia the idealization of Shirley Temple the consensus that light-skinned Maureen is cuter than the other black girls and the idealization of white beauty in the movies Pecola eventually desires blue eyes in order to conform with these white beauty standards imposed on her However by wishing for blue eyes Pecola indicates that she wishes to see things differently as much as she wishes to be seen differently
