The Black Atlantic Modernity And Double Consciousness:

The Black Atlantic Paul Gilroy, 1993 An account of the location of black intellectuals in the modern world following the end of racial slavery The lives and writings of key African Americans such as Martin Delany W E B DuBois Frederick Douglass and Richard Wright are examined in the light of their experiences in Europe and Africa

The Black Atlantic Paul Gilroy, 1993 Afrocentrism Eurocentrism Caribbean Studies British Studies To the forces of cultural nationalism hunkered down in their camps this bold hook sounds a liberating call There is Paul Gilroy tells us a culture that is not specifically African American Caribbean or British but all of these at once a black Atlantic culture whose themes and techniques transcend ethnicity and nationality to produce something new and until now unremarked Challenging the practices and assumptions of cultural studies The Black Atlantic also complicates and enriches our understanding of modernism Debates about postmodernism have cast an unfashionable pall over questions of historical periodization Gilroy bucks this trend by arguing that the development of black culture in the Americas and Europe is a historical experience which can be called modern for a number of clear and specific reasons For Hegel the dialectic of master and slave was integral to modernity and Gilroy considers the implications of this idea for a transatlantic culture In search of a poetics reflecting the politics and history of this culture he takes us on a transatlantic tour of the music that for centuries has transmitted racial messages and feeling around the world from the Jubilee Singers in the nineteenth century to Jimi Hendrix to rap He also explores this internationalism as it is manifested in black writing from the double consciousness of W E B Du Bois to the double vision of Richard Wright to the compelling voice of Toni Morrison In a final tour de force Gilroy exposes the shared contours of black and Jewish concepts of diaspora in order both to establish a theoretical basis for healing rifts between blacks and Jews in contemporary culture and to further define the central theme of his book that blacks have shaped a nationalism if not a nation within the shared culture of the black Atlantic

Redefining the Black Atlantic: Modernity and Double Consciousness in Andrea Levy's The Long Song Annabelle Elizabeth Haynes, 2017 Paul Gilroy's The Black Atlantic Modernity and Double Consciousness 1993 positions the African diaspora created by transatlantic slavery as a counter culture to modernity and in a permanently irreconcilable relationship with Western nationalisms However Andrea Levy's liberatory narrative The Long Song 2010 undermines Gilroy's black Atlantic claims The Long Song offers a redefinition of modernity that centers the experiences of previously enslaved 19th century women whose commodification predicts the spread of global capitalism Rather than representing the African diaspora as a counter culture to modernity Levy's novel reveals the experience of transatlantic slavery as foundational to modernity itself Furthermore Levy's mulatto protagonist portends the rise of creole nationalism in the Caribbean counteracting Gilroy's claim that double consciousness is a relationship between race and nationalism thus reorienting double consciousness as a conflict between black positionality and global white supremacy The Long Song also undermines

Gilroy's rejection of nationalism by foregrounding narrative plurality the existence of contesting narratives within all nationalisms Ultimately The Long Song dismisses Gilroy's black Atlantic offering a more robust and useful definition of the Black Atlantic

Diasporic Poetics Timothy Yu,2021-07-08 This book advances a new concept of the Asian diaspora that creates links between Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian identities Drawing from comparable studies of the black diaspora it traces the histories of colonialism immigration and exclusion shared by these three populations The work of Asian poets in each of these three countries offers a rich terrain for understanding how Asian identities emerge at the intersection of national and transnational flows with the poets thematic and formal choices reflecting the varied pressures of social and cultural histories as well as the influence of Asian writers in other national locations Diasporic Poetics argues that racialized and nationally bounded Asian identities often emerge from transnational political solidarities from Third World struggles against colonialism to the global influence of the American civil rights movement Indeed this volume shows that Asian writers disclaim national belonging as often as they claim it placing Asian diasporic writers at a critical distance from the national spaces within which they write As the first full length study to compare Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian writers the book offers the historical and cultural contexts necessary to understand the distinctive development of Asian writing in each country while also offering close analysis of the work of writers such as Janice Mirikitani Fred Wah Ouyang Yu Myung Mi Kim and Cathy Park Hong
