The Library of John Quinn John Quinn, 1923 Sale Catalogues American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm), inc American art association Aderson galleries, 1928 Best Short Stories Edward Joseph Harrington O'Brien, Martha Foley, 1936 Includes the Yearbook of the American short story 1978 1980 The Oxford Handbook of Sound and Image in Western Art Yael Kaduri, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Sound and Image in Western Art is the first book to examine under one umbrella different kinds of analogies mutual influences integrations and collaborations of audio and visual in different art forms painting sculpture installation architecture performance art animation film video art visual music multimedia experimental music sound art opera theatre and dance Sitting at the cutting edue of the field of music and visual arts the book offers a unique at times controversial view of this rapidly evolving area of study The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story , 1934 A Bibliography of the Writings of Henry James Leroy Phillips, 1906 Stormfield Edition of the Writings of Mark Twain [pseud.]: Mark Twain's autobiography Mark Twain, 1924 The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1853 Changing the System: The Music of Christian Wolff Stephen Chase, 2016-04-08 Christian Wolff is a composer who has followed a distinctive path often at the centre of avant garde activity working alongside figures such as John Cage Merce Cunningham and Cornelius Cardew In a career spanning sixty years he has produced a significant and influential body of work that has aimed to address in a searching and provocative manner what it means to be an experimental and socially aware artist This book provides a wide ranging introduction to a composer often overlooked despite his influence upon many of the major figures in new music since the 1950s from Cage to John Zorn to the new wave of experimentalists across the globe As the first detailed analysis of the music of this prolific and highly individual composer Changing the System The Music of Christian Wolff contains contributions from leading experts in the field of new and experimental music as well as from performers and composers who have worked with Wolff The reception of Wolff s music is discussed in relation to the European avant garde and also within the context of Wolff s association with Cage and Feldman Music from his earliest compositions of the 1950s the highly indeterminate scores the politically inspired pieces up to the most recent works are discussed in detail both in relation to their compositional techniques general aesthetic development and matters of performance The particular challenges and aesthetic issues arising from Wolff s idiosyncratic notations and the implications for performers are a central theme Likewise the ways in which Wolff s political persuasions which arguably account for some of the notational methods he chooses have been worked out through his music are examined With a foreword by his close associate Michael Parsons this is a valuable addition to experimental music literature The Names of Minimalism Patrick Nickleson, 2023-01-19 Minimalism stands as the key representative of 1960s radicalism in art music histories but always as a failed project In The Names of Minimalism Patrick Nickleson holds in tension collaborative composers in the period of their collaboration as well as the

musicological policing of authorship in the wake of their eventual disputes Through examinations of the droning of the Theatre of Eternal Music Reich's Pendulum Music Glass's work for multiple organs the austere performances of punk and no wave bands and Rhys Chatham and Glenn Branca's works for massed electric guitars Nickleson argues for authorship as always impure buzzing and indistinct Expanding the place of Jacques Rancière's philosophy within musicology Nickleson draws attention to disciplinary practices of guarding compositional authority against artists who set out to undermine it The book reimagines the canonic artists and works of minimalism as early minimalism to show that art music histories refuse to take seriously challenges to conventional authorship as a means of defending the very category art music Ultimately Nickleson asks where we end up if we imagine the early minimalist project artists forming bands to perform their own music rejecting the score in favor of recording making extensive use of magnetic tape as compositional and archival medium hosting performances in lofts and art galleries rather than concert halls not as a utopian moment within a 1960s counterculture doomed to fail but as the beginning of a process with a long and influential afterlife

Henry James and the Imagination of Pleasure Tessa Hadley, 2002-02-14 Tessa Hadley examines how Henry James progressively disentangled himself from the moralizing frame through which English language novels in the nineteenth century had imagined sexual passion Hadley argues that his relationship with the European novel tradition was crucial helping to leave behind a way of seeing in which only bad women could be sexual She reads James's transitional fictions of the 1890s as explorations of how disabling and distorting ideals of women's goodness and purity were learned and perpetuated within English and American cultural processes These explorations Hadley argues liberate James to write the great heterosexual love affairs of the late novels with their emphasis on the power of pleasure and play themes which are central to James's ambitious enterprise to represent the privileges and the pains of turn of the century leisure class society
