Spending her final year at Rodney high, all she wants to do is cruise through the year unknown whilst keeping a large distance away from her father and his new step family. She believes she may survive this year as she already has a friend, but of course that takes a turn for the worst when she meets Azian, a boy with changing eye colors who seems way too beautiful to be human and keeps running into a clear-eyed phone thief who calls her his Esterai. All she wants to do is survive this awful year away from her mother, but how can she when gorgeous blue-eyed Azian haunts her very realistic dreams with his alluring golden eyes, a step sister who has everything she's ever dreamed of, and an annoying thief who keeps finding a way into her closed heart. One thing for sure, there is something mysterious happening in Torent. A mystery only she can uncover. This is book 2 of Mated to the Golden Dragon.

Absent Light Eve Isherwood, 2012-10-25 Helen Powers was once a scene of crimes officer for the West Midlands Police. It's four years since the case involving the death of a young teenage girl shattered her career. In an attempt to rebuild her life, she now works as a portrait photographer. But the past is not so easily left behind. After a series of inexplicable and vicious attacks on her, Helen fears that someone is out to take revenge. For Helen, however, it's only the start of something more personal and sinister. Desperate to confront her demons and redeem herself in the face of a formidable adversary, Helen swiftly finds that neither time nor the elements are on her side.
