The Lake Poets in Prose Stuart Andrews, 2021-04-06 Focused on the Lake Poets prose writing including their journalism and correspondence this collection of essays challenges some widely held assumptions Much of the narrative is Bristol based as the city s reference library holds not only much of Southey s personal library but the borrowing registers of the old subscription library which still record the titles that Coleridge and Southey borrowed in the 1790s It places the poets American Susquehanna project customarily dismissed as the idealistic dreams of Oxbridge students in the context of European emigration schemes prompted by the American Revolution Similarly the label Jacobin suggesting French revolutionary brutality is shown here to be no more apt a description than Communist was in 1950s America However the book does show that the poets did challenge the government s social and political assumptions of the day often from a religious standpoint The claim that the three poets abandoned democratic impulses when Napoleon invaded Switzerland is also here rebutted by their involvement a decade later in defending the independence of Spain and Portugal not only against

Bonaparte but against their ancien régime monarchies When in 1815 those monarchs were restored Southey pinned his democratic hopes on the Portuguese colony of Brazil At home amid distress caused by wholesale demobilization and shrinkage of economically viable agricultural land the poets understandably condemned the rabble rousers and correctly predicted an assassination attempt Coleridge and Southey both youthful Unitarians and like Wordsworth devotees of the religion of nature are argued here to have defended the Established Church against Catholic Emancipation while the two brothers in law's interest in Islam is shown to be more than mere obsessive Orientalism The Writings of RABASH - Essays Volume Two Rav Baruch Shalom HaLevi Ashlag (RABASH), 2016-05-02 The writings of Rav Baruch Shalom HaLevi Ashlag RABASH the firstborn son and successor of Rav Yehuda Leib HaLevi Ashlag Baal HaSulam author of the Sulam Ladder commentary on The Book of Zohar provide us with insights that connect the wisdom of Kabbalah to our human experience These books disclose the profound knowledge of human nature that the RABASH possessed and take us on a journey to our own souls As we absorb the texts we find that Kabbalah is not some cryptic occultism but a time tested method to understand ourselves and improve our lives and the world around us Applied Eng Grammar-06 Saxena Raina, Grammar and Chairperson National Progressive Schools Conference Raina Saxena has over 40 years of teaching experience in international schools including The British School and Lycee de Francais Delhi She believes in a holistic approach to learning and explores every avenue to bring substance into her teachings Esha Bakhshi Shaunik has over 35 years of teaching experience in many prestigious schools including The Shriram School and G D Goenka Public School Delhi She has taught English and Social Studies and has also authored textbooks for the primary school students Presenting Women Philosophers Cecile Thérèse Tougas, Sara Ebenreck, 2000 Western philosophy has long excluded the work of women thinkers from their canon Presenting Women Philosophers addresses this exclusion by examining the breadth of women's contributions to Western thought over some 900 years Editors Cecile T Tougas and Sara Ebenreck have gathered essays and other writings that reflect women's deep engagement with the meaning of individual experience as well as the continuity of their philosophical concerns and practices Arranged thematically the collection ranges across eras and literary genres as it emphasizes the intellectual significance of written work by key figures for example Hildegard of Bingen's visionary writings Iris Murdoch's fiction Hannah Arendt's historical narratives and the oral storytelling in black women's literary tradition The collection also brings to light the philosophical importance of little known work by such writers as Mme de Sabl and Mme de Condorcet This wide ranging collection offers non philosophers an introduction to women's thought but also promises to engage advanced students of philosophy with new research on unrecognized contributions Author note Cecile T Tougas formerly an Assistant Professor of Philosophy is a teacher of Latin and Algebra at Ben Franklin Academy in Atlanta Sara Ebenreck is Assistant Professor of Philosophy at St Mary's College of Maryland *Essays as easy as 1, 2, 3!
