addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris The Whole Story John E. Simkin, 1996 This work is the only comprehensive guide to sequels in English with over 84 000 works by 12 500 authors in 17 000 sequences

The Law Times, 1928 Books Added Chicago Public Library, 1916 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne, 1889 The Publishers Weekly, 1922 Threatened Masculinity from British Fiction to Cold War German Cinema Joseph Willis, 2019-05-30 The impact of the Cold War on German male identities can be seen in the nation's cinematic search for a masculine paradigm that rejected the fate centered value system of its National Socialist past while also recognizing that German males once again had become victims of fate and fatalism but now within the value system of the Soviet and American hegemonies that determined the fate of Cold War Germany and Central Europe This monograph is the first to demonstrate that this Cold War cinematic search sought out a meaningful masculine paradigm through film adaptations of late Victorian and Edwardian male writers who likewise sought a means of self determination within a hegemonic structure that often left few opportunities for personal agency In contrast to the scholarly practice of exploring categories of modern masculinity such as Victorian imperialist manliness or German Cold War male identity as distinct from each other this monograph offers an important comparative corrective that brings forward an extremely influential century long trajectory of threatened masculinity For German Cold War masculinity lessons were to be learned from history namely from late Victorian and Edwardian models of manliness Cold War Germans like the Victorians before them had to confront the unknowns of a new world without fear or hesitation In a Cold War mentality where nuclear technology and geographic distance had trumped face to face confrontation between East and West Cold War German masculinity sought alternatives to the insanity of mutual nuclear destruction by choosing not just to confront threats but to resolve threats directly through personal agency and self determination Sunset ,1918 All of Us Raymond Carver,2015-05-25 A rich collection of poems from not only one of the great short story writers of our time The Philadelphia Inquirer but one of America s most large hearted and affecting poets Like Raymond Carver s stories the more than 300 poems in All of Us are marked by a keen attention to the physical world an uncanny ability to compress vast feeling into discreet moments a voice of conversational intimacy and an unstinting sympathy This complete edition brings together all the poems of Carver s five previous books from Fires to the posthumously published No Heroics Please It also contains bibliographical and textual notes on individual poems a chronology of Carver s life and work and a moving introduction by Carver s widow the poet Tess Gallagher The Poetic Works of Helius Eobanus Hessus Harry Vredevelt,2025-10-13 This cornucopia of poetic fruits from Hessus s autumn opens with On the Tumults of These Times 1528 meditating on the Peasant War and the Sack of Rome and exhortations to Emperor Charles V to heal Germany s traumas and defeat the Turks 1530 Next are the masterpieces Epicedia 1531 mourning famous contemporaries the urban praise Nuremberg Illuminated 1532 and three books of Christian Heroides 1532 updated to reflect Lutheran teaching The collection concludes with three dirges a panegyric of Landgrave Philip s victory in Wrttemberg 1534 an Elegy on Slander for Melanchthon 1538 and an Epithalamion for the Marburg jurist Justus Studaeus 1539
