

Old Folks Laugh

They have spent their content of simpering,
holding their lips this
and that way, winding
the lines between their brows. Old folks allow their bellies to jiggle like slow tambourines.
The hollers
rise up and spill
over any way they want.
When old folks laugh, they free the world.
They turn slowly, slyly knowing the best and the worst of remembering.
Saliva glistens in
the corners of their mouths,
their heads wobble
on brittle necks, but their laps
are filled with memories.
When old folks laugh, they consider the promise of dear painless death, and generously forgive life for happening to them.
