What Only The Heart Can See:

My Heart Has a Brain! It Can Think! Steven Flores Sr.,2023-06-30 The apostle Paul talks about the spiritual warfare we fight daily not weekly monthly or even yearly but every day of our lives Paul speaks about us wrestling not against flesh and blood but principalities and powers Ephesians 6 12 ESV states For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood but against the rulers against the authorities against the cosmic powers over this present darkness against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places In this book the author explores matters of the heart observing that we can't see what we are fighting against it's invisible We must connect to our hearts and draw closer to God to see better spiritually and know when a thought is from the Lord or the enemy One way to do this is through daily prayer and reading the Bible and the author highlights various Scriptures that will help you engage in spiritual warfare defeat Satan and move closer to the Lord The battle you must wage will not end until Jesus Christ comes back for you In the meantime you must put on the armor of God and follow your heart

Nguyen SJ,2018-02-21 To many modern people apatheia being without suffering without passion sounds like cold heartedness and indifference to others a condition to be avoided However in the classical world and for many in the historic Christian church it was a spiritual state to aspire to What exactly is apatheia What is its origin How has it been used in spiritual writings throughout the centuries of Christian practice And how may it help us today to articulate a Christian understanding of the soul's spiritual well being The central aim of the book is twofold to rediscover the meaning and function of the Greek term apatheia as it was understood and employed by the Stoics in their philosophical and religious writings and to explore how the theologians of the church Origen Evagrius John Cassian Maximus and Ignatius of Loyola interpreted apatheia for their spiritual practice Nguyen argues that the concept of apatheia in the Christian spiritual tradition connotes the state of spiritual peace or well being of the human soul wherein excessive and negative emotions such as lust excessive desire for food and drink anger envy resentment self love and pride are replaced by reasonable desires love and humility
