Knowledge for a Sustainable World Tor Halvorsen, Hilde Ibsen, 2015-12-07 The search for answers to the issue of global sustainability has become increasingly urgent In the context of higher education many universities and academics are seeking new insights that can shift our dependence on ways of living that rely on the exploitation of so many and the degradation of so much of our planet This is the vision that drives SANORD and many of the researchers and institutions within its network Although much of the research is on a relatively small scale the vision is steadily gaining momentum forging dynamic collaborations and pathways to new knowledge The contributors to this book cover a variety of subject areas and offer fresh insights about chronically under researched parts of the world Others document and critically reflect on innovative approaches to cross continental teaching and research collaborations This book will be of interest to anyone involved in the transformation of higher education or the practicalities of cross continental and cross disciplinary academic collaboration The Southern African Nordic Centre SANORD is a network of higher education institutions from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway Sweden Botswana Namibia Malawi South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe Universities in the southern African and Nordic regions that are not yet members are encouraged to join MALAPY 2022 Sitti Hartinah, Elchin Ghasimov, Arif Zainudin, Habibullah Akhmad, Purwo Susongko, Menza Mam Mesfin, 2022-08-15 Proceedings of the International Conference on Law Social Science Economics and Education 2022 Malapy 2022 28 May 2022 Tegal Indonesia Malapy is an International Conference hosted by Universitas Pancasakti Tegal This Conference is arranged to become an annual conference making room for scholars and practitioners in the area of economic legal educational environmental aspects as well as a combination of all these aspects

The Last Laugh Will Daddario, 2025-09-04 This book investigates what the author terms The last laugh which reveals itself as a crucial element in the work of grief and acceptance amid social strife and political injustice We hear and see the laugh emerge when engaged in situations that are not funny at first glance at least not according to social conventions of propriety The last laugh is seriously funny insofar as it reveals the extent to which the laughing subject is thoroughly enmeshed in the unfunny of social antagonisms yet also capable of accepting its position as something to laugh at and through in order to endure the pains of social life The last laugh emerges at the hiatus between action autonomy and passivity non doing Chances are high that you have laughed this laugh This book is designed to help us all understand what it is and how it helps promote insight in the contemporary moment Understanding the last laugh is necessary to enable full open grieving of social injustice treating the comic as a necessary component of open or what the social sciences refer to as adaptive grieving It thus provides a new perspective on grief scholarship as well as a new perspective on comedy studies

Puppet and Spirit: Ritual, Religion, and Performing Objects Claudia Orenstein, Tim Cusack, 2023-07-31 This anthology of essays aims to explore the many types of relationships that exist between puppets broadly speaking and the immaterial world The allure of the puppet goes beyond its material presence as historically and throughout the globe many uses of puppets and related objects have expressed and capitalized on their posited connections to other realms or ability to serve as vessels or conduits for immaterial presence The flip side of the puppet s troubling uncanniness is precisely the possibilities it represents for connecting to discarnate realities Where do we see such connections How do we describe analyze and theorize these relationships The first of two volumes this book focuses on these questions in relation to long established traditional practices using puppets devotional objects and related items with sacred aspects to them or that perform ritual roles Looking at performance traditions and artifacts from China Indonesia Korea Mali Brazil Iran Germany and elsewhere the essays from scholars and practitioners provide a range of useful models and critical vocabularies for addressing the ritual and spiritual aspects of puppet performance further expanding the growing understanding and appreciation of puppetry generally This book along with its companion volume offers for the first time robust coverage of this subject from a diversity of voices examples and perspectives Routledge International Handbook of Therapeutic Stories and Storytelling Clive Holmwood,Sue Jennings,Sharon Jacksties,2022-02-14 The Routledge International Handbook of Therapeutic Stories and Storytelling is a unique book that explores stories from an educational community social health therapeutic and therapy perspectives acknowledging a range of diverse social and cultural views in which stories are used and written by esteemed storytellers artists therapists and academics from around the globe The book is divided into five main sections that examine different approaches and contexts for therapeutic stories and storytelling The collected authors explore storytelling as a response to the Covid 19 pandemic in education social and community settings and in health and therapeutic contexts The final section offers an International Story Anthology written by co editor Sharon Jacksties and a final story by Katja Gore an This book is of enormous importance to psychotherapists and related mental health professionals as well as academics storytellers teachers people working in special educational needs and all those with an interest in storytelling and its applied value Education, Communication and Democracy in Africa Chikumbutso Herbert Manthalu,Victor Chikaipa,Anthony Mavuto Gunde,2021-07-22 This innovative volume critically examines the intersection between democracy education and communication in African educational domains Providing a platform for multidisciplinary research it advances scholarship in democratic citizenship education in African higher education through methodological and theoretical innovation The book discusses the extent to which explicit or subtle communication frameworks that underlie policymaking institutional culture teaching and learning experiences in African higher education significantly engender democratic mind habits and practices in students as citizens Chapters in the book examine how communication frameworks in pedagogy ought to navigate power imbalances between students on the one hand and the institution and academics on the other The book also examines how dis empowering higher education policies are and whether they contribute to democratic equality This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of education democratic citizenship education communication and African studies From 'Stone-Age' to 'Real-Time' Martin Slama,Jenny Munro,2015-04-24 There are probably no other people on earth to whom the image of the stone age is so persistently attached than the inhabitants of the island of New Guinea which is divided into independent Papua New Guinea and the western part of the island known today as Papua and West Papua From Stone Age to Real Time examines the forms of agency frictions and anxieties the current moment generates in West Papua where the persistent stone age image meets the practices and ideologies of the real time a popular expression referring to immediate digital communication The volume is thus essentially occupied with discourses of time and space and how they inform questions of hierarchy and possibilities for equality Papuans are increasingly mobile and seeking to rework inherited ideas institutions and technologies while also coming up against palpable limits on what can be imagined or achieved secured or defended This volume investigates some of these trajectories for the cultural logics and social or political structures that shape them The chapters are highly ethnographic based on in depth research conducted in diverse spaces within and beyond Papua These contributions explore topics ranging from hip hop to HIV AIDS to historicity filling much needed conceptual and ethnographic lacunae in the study of West Papua

The Primitivist Imaginary in Iberian and Transatlantic

Modernisms Joana Cunha Leal, Mariana Pinto dos Santos, 2023-12-07 Taking into account politics history and aesthetics this edited volume explores the main expressions of primitivism in Iberian and Transatlantic modernisms Ten case studies are thoroughly analyzed concerning both the circulations and exchanges connecting the Iberian and Latin American artistic and literary milieus with each other and with the Parisian circles Chapters also examine the patterns and paradoxes associated with the manifestations of primitivism including their local implications and cosmopolitan drive This book opens up and deepens the discussion of the ties that Spain and Portugal maintained with their imperial pasts which extended into European twentieth century colonialism as well as the nationalist and folk aesthetics promoted by the cultural industry of Iberian dictatorships The book significantly rethinks long established ideas about modern art and the production of primitivist imagery The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Iberian studies Latin American studies colonialism and modernism The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
