Finweek, 2006-07 Sustainable Development in Africa Walter Leal Filho, Rudi Pretorius, Luiza Olim de Sousa, 2021-07-09 This book serves the purpose of documenting and promoting African experiences on sustainable development which encompasses both formal and non formal education Sustainable development is very important to Africa but there is a paucity of publication which documents and promotes experiences from African countries Due to their complexity the interrelations between social economic and political factors related to sustainable development especially at universities need to be better understood There is also a real need to showcase successful examples of how African institutions are handling their sustainability challenges It is against this background that this book has been produced It is a truly interdisciplinary publication useful to scholars social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies and private companies undertaking research and or executing projects focusing on sustainability from across Africa As African nations strive to pursue the UN Sustainable Development Goals it is imperative to cater for the information needs seen across the continent and foster the dissemination of experiences and case studies which may support

both on going and future efforts The scope of the book is deliberately kept wide and we are looking for contributions across the spectrum of sustainable development from business and economics to arts and fashion administration environment languages and media studies

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen,2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt

Advancing Online Course Design and Pedagogy for the 21st Century Learning Environment Chatham, Daniel, 2021-01-08 The current learning environment is substantially different than what existed for most of the 20th century Learners and teachers today must navigate in perpetually changing contexts where education is influenced by technological advancement and obsolescence economic barriers a changing employment landscape and even international politics Studies indicate that employers seek to hire graduates with strong skills in areas coalescing around international awareness creativity communication leadership and teamwork Skills and experiences in these areas are necessary preparation for the current economy and to pursue jobs that do not exist yet while providing some insulation against the obsolescence of industries that lack these characteristics These interpersonal skills are not often the subject of students degrees yet there are opportunities in online education to cultivate them With increased interest in new career options comes the need to reconsider how to teach subjects in the increasingly online environment Advancing Online Course Design and Pedagogy for the 21st Century Learning Environment is a critical reference book that navigates today s dynamic education requirements and provides examples of how online learning can foster growth in skill areas necessary for career advancement through effective course design Moreover it helps educators gain insight into online pedagogy and course design for the 21st century learner and prepares them to convert traditional courses and enhance existing online courses thereby supporting students growth and development in the highly dynamic online learning environment Focusing on specific learning activities assessments engagement communication techniques and more this book provides a valuable resource for those seeking to upgrade teaching and learning into the online environment those that seek better employment outcomes for their students and those seeking to explore contemporary online course design strategies or examples This includes teachers instructional designers curriculum developers academicians researchers and students

Landscapes between Then and Now Nicola Brandt, 2020-09-08 In Landscapes Between Then and Now Nicola Brandt examines the increasingly compelling and diverse cross disciplinary work of photographers and artists made during the transition from apartheid to post apartheid and into the contemporary era By examining specific artworks made in South Africa Namibia and Angola Brandt sheds light on established and emerging themes related to aftermath landscapes embodied histories un belonging spirituality and memorialization She shows how landscape and identity are mutually constituted and profiles this process against the background of the legacy of the acutely racially divisive policies of the apartheid regime that are still reflected on the land As a signpost throughout the book Brandt draws on the work of the renowned South African photographer Santu Mofokeng and his critical thinking about landscape Landscapes Between Then and Now explores how practitioners who engage with identity and their physical environment as a social product might reveal something about the complex and fractured nature of postcolonial and contemporary societies Through diverse strategies and aesthetics they comment on inherent structures and epistemologies of power whilst also expressing new and radical forms of self determinism Brandt asks why these cross disciplinary works ranging from social documentary to experimental performance and embodied practices are critical now and what important possibilities for social and political reflection and engagement they suggest

Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya Eric E. Otenyo, 2017-03-01 Trade Unions and the Age of Information and Communication Technologies in Kenya provides a comprehensive description of the use of ICTs within the trade union movement in Kenya In this book Professor Eric Otenyo explores the intersection between new technologies and union as key stakeholders in national governance and development The dearth of research on how trade unions can play a part in the new economy continues to undermine the effective use of ICTs in development This book brings to light the challenges that unions face while navigating the new economy and netstate characterized by a proliferation of ICTs and globalization

Ambivalent Patricia Hayes, Gary Minkley, 2019-11-12 Going beyond photography as an isolated medium to engage larger questions and interlocking forms of expression and historical analysis Ambivalent gathers a new generation of scholars based on the continent to offer an expansive frame for thinking about questions of photography and visibility in Africa The volume presents African relationships with photography and with visibility more generally in ways that engage and disrupt the easy categories and genres that have characterized the field to date Contributors pose new questions concerning the instability of the identity photograph in South Africa ethnographic photographs as potential history humanitarian discourse from the perspective of photographic survivors of atrocity photojournalism the nuanced passage from studio to screen in postcolonial digital portraiture and the burgeoning visual activism in West Africa As the contributors show photography is itself a historical subject it involves arrangement financing posture positioning and other kinds of work that are otherwise invisible By moving us outside the frame of the photograph itself by refusing to accept the photograph as the last word this book makes photography an engaging and important subject of historical investigation Ambivalent s contributors bring photography into conversation with orality travel writing ritual psychoanalysis and politics with new approaches to questions of race time and postcolonial and decolonial histories Contributors George Emeka Agbo Isabelle de Rezende Jung Ran Forte Ingrid Masondo Phindi Mnyaka Okechukwu Nwafor Vilho Shigwedha Napandulwe Shiweda Drew Thompson

The Use and Abuse of the Spirit in Pentecostalism Mookgo S. Kgatle, Allan H. Anderson, 2020-11-29 This book is a pneumatological reflection on the use and abuse of the Spirit in light of the abuse of religion within South African Pentecostalism Both emerging and well established scholars of South African Pentecostalism are brought together to reflect on pneumatology from various approaches which includes among others historical biblical migration commercialisation of religion discernment of spirits and human flourishing From a broader understanding of the function of the Holy Spirit in different streams of Pentecostalism the argument is that this function has changed with the emergence of the new Prophetic churches in South Africa This is a fascinating insight into one of the major emerging worldwide religious movements As such it will be of great interest to academics in Pentecostal Studies Christian Studies Theology and Religious Studies as well as African Studies and the Sociology of Religion
