Open(ing) Education Dianne Conrad,Paul Prinsloo,2020-01-20 There is no shortage of scholarly research that reflects the growing importance of open education whether referring to issues surrounding access to education formal informal or postformal different copyright licencing regimes e g Creative Commons alternative forms of educational delivery such as Massive Open Online Courses MOOCs or alternative pathways to learning curriculum development and delivery and or assessing and accrediting learning So what can another publication add to our understanding of open education It has become clear that thinking in terms of the binaries of open versus closed can no longer account and do justice to the wide range of possibilities and the varying factors that destabilise some definitions and practices In Open ing Education Theory and Practice the authors therefore map open as emerging from a dynamic network or ecology of often mutually constitutive factors resulting in a range of possibilities The chapters in this book provide us with glimpses of open opening and opened with none of these being permanent states of affairs but rather contingent serendipitous often uncertain and fluid This book is unique not only with regard to its variety of approaches to mapping the various possibilities between open and closed but also with regard to the global spread of its many contributing authors Resource Material Series ,2015 Preparing 21st Century Teachers for Teach Less, Learn More (TLLM) Pedagogies Kumar, Pradeep,Keppell, Michael James,Lim, Chee Leong,2019-12-27 The current trend of learner centeredness in education has been challenging many of the current ways of working especially in higher education institutions This rapid change in educational institutions demands educators acquire new sets of skills via continuous reflective practices Hence educators in higher education institutions are actively involved in research driven teaching and learning practices This change of role from mere content delivery to learning facilitators could be better achieved through a strong research driven community of practice Preparing 21st Century Teachers for Teach Less Learn More TLLM Pedagogies is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on the application of practice based learning techniques in higher education institutions This publication establishes a platform for academics to share their best practices to promote teach less learn more pedagogies and learn reciprocally from the community of practice While highlighting topics such as interactive learning experiential technology and logical thinking skills this book is ideally designed for teachers instructional designers higher education faculty deans researchers professionals universities academicians and students seeking current research on transformative learning and future teaching practices Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe Benjamin Pogrund,2019-10-16 A collection of thought provoking and moving essays on Robert Sobukwe commissioned and edited by his biographer and friend Benjamin Pogrund Sobukwe was a lecturer lawyer founding member and first president of the Pan Africanist Congress PAC and Robben Island prisoner
