Philosophical Inquiry with Children Gilbert Burgh, Simone Thornton, 2018-12-07 Philosophy in schools in Australia dates back to the 1980s and is rooted in the Philosophy for Children curriculum and pedagogy Seeing potential for educational change Australian advocates were quick to develop new classroom resources and innovative programs that have proved influential in educational practice throughout Australia and internationally Behind their contributions lie key philosophical and educational discussions and controversies which have shaped attempts to introduce philosophy in schools and embed it in state and national curricula Drawing together a wide range of eminent scholars and practitioners in the field of educational philosophy this anthology the first of its kind provides not only a historical narrative but an opportunity to reflect on the insights and experiences of the authors that have made history The collection is divided into three parts The overarching theme of Part I is the early years of Philosophy for Children in Australia and how they informed the course that the philosophy in schools movement would take Part II focuses on the events and debates surrounding the development and production of new materials including arguments for and against the suitability of the original Philosophy for Children curriculum In Part III key developments relating to teaching philosophy in schools are analysed This collection of diverse views critical appraisals and different perspectives of historical currents is intended to stimulate thought provoking questions about theory and practice and to increase general awareness both nationally and internationally of the maturation of philosophy in schools in Australia It is also intended to encourage readers to identify emerging ideas and develop strategies for their implementation

Decolonising Media and Communication Studies Education in Sub-Saharan Africa Selina Linda Mudavanhu, Shepherd Mpofu, Kezia Batisai, 2023-10-27 The book provides insights on decolonising media and communication studies education from diverse African scholars at different stages of their careers These academics located on the continent and in the diaspora share an interest in decolonising higher education broadly and media and communication studies teaching and learning in particular Although many African countries gained flag independence from different European colonial powers between the 1950s and the 1970s this book argues that former colonies remain ensnared in a colonial power matrix Many African universities did not jettison ways of teaching and learning established during colonialism and even those journalism communication and media studies training programmes which were established after the attainment of flag independence did not place decolonial agendas at the front and centre when setting them up Starting with big picture thematic questions around decolonisation the book goes on to consider what the implications of change would be for students and instructors before reflecting on how far it is possible to decolonise curricula and syllabi and what this might look like in practice across a range of subject areas and country contexts Overall this book presents a nuanced picture of what a decolonised media and communication studies education could look like in sub Saharan Africa This book is essential for researchers in Africa in disciplines such as media and communication studies journalism film studies cultural studies and higher education studies More broadly the concepts and ideas on decolonising teaching and learning discussed in the book are relevant to instructors in any discipline who are interested in doing the decolonial work of contesting coloniality

Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day The Anthropology of White Supremacy Aisha M. Beliso-De Jesús, Jemima Pierre, Junaid Rana, 2025-01-28 White supremacy has shaped cultural anthropology from its inception yet the discipline also offers powerful tools for understanding how this corrosive force structures societies around the world The Anthropology of White Supremacy explores how this phenomenon works around the globe and within anthropology itself Gathering original essays from a diverse international group of anthropologists this collection illustrates that white supremacy far from being only a fringe belief of white nationalists and fascists is a core mainstream ideology The book includes essays about many countries including Brazil Mexico Nigeria Norway Senegal South Africa and the United States and takes up such topics as American advertising the Belgian Congo South Asian philosophies police cadets U S immigration courts Guantanamo memoirs Palestinian feminism Hollywood paparazzi and how Indigenous anthropologists can counter the damage of settler colonialism The result reveals not only how anthropology can help us to better comprehend white supremacy but also how the discipline can help us begin to dismantle it With contributions by Omolade Adunbi Samar Al Bulushi Aisha M Beliso De Jesús Michael Blakey Mitzi Uehara Carter Subhadra Mitra Channa Celina de S Vanessa Diaz Britt Halvorson Faye Harrison Sarah Ihmoud Anthony R Jerry Darryl Li Kristin Loftsdottir Christopher Loperena Keisha Khan Y Perry Jemima Pierre Jean Muteba Rahier Laurence Ralph Renya K Ramirez Junaid Rana Joshua Reno Jonathan Rosa Shalini Shankar and Maria Styve

Unisa Courses 2016 Prospectus: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Unisa Courses 2016 Prospectus : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
