Reflections on Postgraduate Supervision and Academic Development in an African Distance Education Environment Tennyson Mgutshini,Thenjiwe

Meyiwa,Amile Mavundla,2024-03-05 Within postgraduate studies student non completion attrition and failure rates range from 29% to 65% These unacceptably high failure rates have been attributed to wide ranging influences Even so there is consensus that postgraduate supervision represents a critical enabling vehicle for student success Reflections on postgraduate supervision and academic development in an African distance education environment offers a collection of scholarly contributions that focus on critical questions related to the practice of postgraduate supervision from the multiple perspectives of higher education institutions postgraduate students and supervisors The inclusion of contributions from educators and learners in one manuscript makes this a unique text one that should be the mainstay of any scholar engaged in postgraduate studies The manuscript aptly makes the case for recognising that postgraduate preparation and supervision are the most critical contributing factors to the success of postgraduate learners and by inference they represent a significant panacea to many of Africa's social and economic skills

Higher Education ICT Integration in Africa Ke Yu,Reuben Dlamini,2024-08-21 This multidisciplinary edited volume examines higher education's ICT integration in Africa contributing a new and inclusive change readiness framework to better understand how to manage ICT or other technological disruptions in resource restrained contexts Tackling ICT incorporation in HEIs from different levels chapters document case studies from countries such as Uganda South Africa Rwanda Eswatini and Zimbabwe to demonstrate both the complexity of integration but also the successes it has enabled and under which conditions The cases included in this book also exhibit better incorporation of both change content and process while some cases also make explicit reference to other technology adoption models Ultimately the book highlights conceptual and empirical research to inform practices and policy development in Africa improving multi level success or change readiness in ICT incorporation in HEIs in Africa Addressing various gaps in existing literature and proposing innovative solutions like the multilevel change readiness model this book will therefore be of interest to scholars researchers and academics in the fields of higher education ICT integration and educational technology more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Current State of Open Educational Resources in the "Belt and Road" Countries Ronghuai Huang, Dejian Liu, Ahmed Tlili, Yuan Gao, Rob Koper, 2020-03-24 This book presents the current state of Open Educational Resources OER within the countries covered by the China's Belt and Road Initiative The authors describe eight aspects of OER development in their countries infrastructure policy resources open license curriculum and teaching methodology outcome stakeholders and impact This book also conducts a comparative study between those countries to identify the OER gaps in the Belt and Road countries It then offers valuable insights and recommendations for several stakeholders including policy makers and educators wishing to integrate open educational resources into educational processes as well as for those involved in inter regional open educational resources cooperation Open and Distance Education in Asia, Africa and the Middle East Olaf Zawacki-Richter, Adnan Qayyum, 2019-02-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book describes the history structure and institutions of open and distance education in six countries China India Russia Turkey South Africa and South Korea It describes how open and distance education is evolving in a digital age to reflect the needs and circumstances of the national higher education systems in these countries It also explores the similarities and differences between how their open and distance higher education systems are managed and structured This book is the second in a series following Open and Distance Education in Australia Europe and the Americas Springer 2018 Both books compare and draw conclusions about the nature of open and distance education in the context of various national higher education systems In a digital era characterized by the growing use of online open and distance education this book will prove particularly valuable for policy makers and senior administrators who want to learn about establishing or expanding open and distance education services In addition it offers a valuable reference guide for researchers academics and students interested in understanding the different approaches to open and distance education

Handbook of Research on Mixed Methods Research in Information Science Ngulube, Patrick, 2021-11-26 Mixed methods research is becoming prevalent in many fields yet little has been done to elevate mixed methods research in information science A comprehensive picture of information science and its problems is needed to further understand and address the issues associated with it as well as how mixed methods research can be adapted and used The Handbook of Research on Mixed Methods Research in Information Science discusses the quality of mixed methods studies and methodological transparency sampling in mixed methods research and the application of theory in mixed methods research throughout various contexts Covering topics such as the issues and potential directions for further research in mixed methods this comprehensive major reference work is ideal for researchers policymakers academicians librarians practitioners instructors and students

Violence Chris Jones, 2021-12-14 This collective volume takes a social scientific approach to the subject of violence Violence manifests itself on different levels often beyond our comprehension The book comprises 15 chapters in which experts from different academic disciplines and backgrounds examine violence carefully logically and in a challenging way Although it is written from South African perspectives it is relatable to other countries As a source aimed at local and international scholars researchers and peers it invites open and critical discussion The arguments are presented systematically intersectionally and constructivistically It focuses on violence as an evolutionary phenomenon on how it effects children on interpersonal collective and structural violence on ecological violence and on violence as metaphor amongst others
