The Master and His Emissary Iain McGilchrist, 2019-03-26 A new edition of the bestselling classic published with a special introduction to mark its 10th anniversary This pioneering account sets out to understand the structure of the human brain the place where mind meets matter Until recently the left hemisphere of our brain has been seen as the rational side the superior partner to the right But is this distinction true Drawing on a vast body of experimental research Iain McGilchrist argues while our left brain makes for a wonderful servant it is a very poor master As he shows it is the right side which is the more reliable and insightful Without it our world would be mechanistic stripped of depth colour and value Gaslit Brain Jennifer Fraser, 2025-11-04 Reveals the psychological functions of the manipulator's brain and the impact of gaslighting on our minds shining a spotlight on how manipulative brains seduce us into belief and disrupt our ability to think effectively This psychological study analyzes the onslaught of gaslighting that has recently dominated the world stage making many turn to the dictionary just to figure out how it works who's at risk and why it's becoming normalized When power credibility and social status are harnessed to manipulate not just individuals but whole populations may suffer violence against facts and truth Our recent concern with gaslighting's destructive force has made psychological safety a priority in relationships at home and at work In PART ONE we look at the impact gaslighting has on targets brains and minds Many do not realize that gaslighting has an extremely harmful neurological impact If manipulation leads to insanity it's because the brain and mind have been distorted and compromised With the advent of non invasive technology scientists use brain imagery to examine what happens to brains that are lied to manipulated and betrayed The damage is physical and visible and provides insights into why the mind's functions are compromised PART TWO lasers in on the brains of those who bully and gaslight Many do not realize that those who lie and manipulate have deficits in their brains If manipulation leads to insanity it's because the brain and mind have been distorted With the advent of non invasive technology scientists use brain imagery to examine what's going on in the brains of bullies and gaslighters and why they're so effective The damage is physical and visible and it provides insights into why the mind's functions are compromised destructive and dangerous PART THREE is practical and applicable It teaches how to harness psychology and neuroscience to stay safe and sane It provides proven exercises to keep us sharp and skeptical when faced with every manipulation from smear campaigns to spin doctors It provides the tools needed to maintain clarity when exposed to those who are sowing the seeds of confusion and destabilization in an attempt to shatter our brains and lives We can strengthen our brains and minds capacity to recognize and resist falsehoods level by level mechanism by mechanism function by function PART THREE of The Gaslit Brain turns the psychological and brain research into practical applicable strategies that anyone can apply to identify and resist the manipulation of gaslighting The Aesthetics of Discipleship Adrian Coates, 2021-09-30 Discipleship is embodied Formation in the Christian life is not an otherworldly exercise but one that plays out in this world interwoven with everyday sensory experience in ordinary life The Aesthetics of

Discipleship explores this dynamic through Kierkegaard's framing of aesthetic existence the sensory experience of being in the moment further developed by Bonhoeffer as operating within a realm of freedom encompassing not only art but play friendship and cultural formation In addition to Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer the work of Iain McGilchrist Graham Ward and Nicholas Wolterstorff is employed to offer a fresh perspective on discipleship from below Everyday sensory experiences are integral not only to being human but to the practice of discipleship such that discipleship integrates aesthetic ethical and religious existence Aesthetic existence unhinged from a life of faith or fueled by distorted Christendom creates and sustains aestheticized pseudorealities centered on the self Mature aesthetic existence however anchored in love for God plays a fundamental role in the Christian life both as the incarnational celebration of being fully human and also through the preconscious formation of imaginaries by which we live

The Divided Brain and the Search for Meaning Iain McGilchrist, 2012-07-15 In this 10 000 word essay written to complement Iain McGilchrist s acclaimed The Master and His Emissary the author asks why despite the vast increase in material well being people are less happy today than they were half a century ago and suggests that the division between the two hemispheres of the brain has a critical effect on how we see and understand the world around us In particular McGilchrist suggests the left hemisphere's obsession with reducing everything it sees to the level of minute mechanistic detail is robbing modern society of the ability to understand and appreciate deeper human values Accessible to readers who haven't yet read The Master and His Emissary as well as those who have this is a fascinating immensely thought provoking essay that delves to the very heart of what it means to be human

Sacred Architecture in a Secular Age Marie Clausén, 2016-02-26 Having won more than one recent poll as Britain's best loved building the appeal of Durham Cathedral appears abiding which begs the question whether an iconic sacred building can retain meaning and affective pertinence for contemporary secular visitors Using the example of Durham Cathedral this book sets out to explore wherein the appeal of historic churches lies today and considers questions of how and why their preservation into a post Christian era should be secured By including feedback from visitors to the cathedral and the author's own very personal account of the cathedral in the form of an ekphrasis this work seeks to privilege an interpretation of architecture that is based on the individual experience rather than on more conventional narratives of architecture history and cultural heritage policy Recognising the implication of our choice of narrative on the perceived value of historic churches is crucial when deliberating their future role This book puts forth a compelling case for historical sacred architecture suggesting that its loss through imperceptive conservation practices as much as through neglect or demolition would diminish us all secularists atheists and agnostics included

The Divided Therapist Rod Tweedy, 2020-10-06 This important new book explores the nature of the divided brain and its relevance for contemporary psychotherapy Citing the latest neuroscientific research it shows how the relationship between the two hemispheres of the brain is central to our mental health and examines both the practical and theoretical implications for therapy Disconnections dissociations and imbalances between our two hemispheres underlie many of our most prevalent forms of mental distress and disturbance These include issues of addiction autism schizophrenia depression anorexia relational trauma borderline and personality disorders psychopathy anxiety derealisation and devitalisation and alexithymia A contemporary understanding of the nature of the divided brain is therefore of importance in engaging with and treating these disturbances Featuring contributions from some of the key authors in the field The Divided Therapist suggests that hemispheric integration lies at the heart of the therapeutic process itself and that a better understanding of the precise mechanisms that underlie and enable this integration will help to transform the practice of psychotherapy and psychoanalysis in the twenty first century The book will be essential reading for any therapeutic practitioner interested in how the architecture of the brain informs and effects their client s issues and challenges [Cirpit Review.
