The Narainpur Incident:

The Narayanpur Incident Shashi Deshpande, 1982 The Narayanpur Incident Shashi Deshpande, 1995 8 August 1942 As Gandiji and prominent leaders are put in jail Babu and Manju suddenly find themselves a part of the larger protests their schools close down and their father is put behind bars Their daring brother Mohan goes underground and the rest of the family moves to Narayanpur a sleepy little village seemingly untouched by the turbulence in the country But Narayanpur is seething within and it all comes to a head when a group of children dare to confront the police Theft of an Idol Paul R. Brass, 2020-09-01 As collective violence erupts in many regions throughout the world we often hear media reports that link the outbreaks to age old ethnic or religious hostilities thereby freeing the state its agents and its political elites from responsibility Paul Brass encourages us to look more closely at the issues of violence ethnicity and the state by focusing on specific instances of violence in their local contexts and questioning the prevailing interpretations of them Through five case studies of both rural and urban public violence including police public confrontations and Hindu Muslim riots Brass shows how out of many possible interpretations applicable to these incidents government and the media select those that support existing relations of power in state and society Adopting different modes narrator detective and social scientist Brass treats incidents of collective violence arising initially out of common occurrences such as a drunken brawl the rape of a girl and the theft of an idol and demonstrates how some incidents remain localized while others are fit into broader frameworks of meaning thereby becoming useful for upholders of dominant ideologies Incessant talk about violence and its implications in these circumstances contributes to its persistence rather than its reduction Such treatment serves in fact to mask the causes of violence displace the victims from the center of attention and divert society's gaze from those responsible for its endemic character Brass explains how this process ultimately implicates everyone in the perpetuation of systems of violence 3 the project of enabling positive social transformation Her main argument formed after recognizing several overarching thematic and structural patterns in more than one hundred texts is that the novels comprise an aspirational literature with a transformative agenda they imagine apparently empowered child characters who perform in diverse ways in the process of successfully creating and shaping the ideal Indian nation their own well adjusted bicultural identities in the diaspora and or their own empowered girlhoods Michelle Superle is a Professor in the department of Communications at Okanagan College She has taught children s literature composition and creative writing courses at various Canadian universities and has published articles in Papers and IRCL

LIFE AND WORK OF KAMALA MARKANDAYA AND SHASHI DESHPANDE: A COMPARATIVE STUDY Sanjana Antil, 2021-05-06 It is said that literature is a reflection of society the author as well as his her literature is the product of it It is also said that literature is the product of a given milieu and individual sensibility which constitute together a culture entity rooted in the changing traditional value system of people The writer as a human being is a part and parcel of the society and so naturally he gets influenced by the atmosphere around him Therefore the literature coming out through him becomes the manifestation of the cultural social spiritual and political scenario in the society Kamala Markandaya is one of the leading women novelists of India She has projected the theme of cultural clashes in different dimensions She has produced several novels to her credit Her novels find forceful expression of cultural clashes such as conflict between Tradition and modernity clash between the rural and urban East West conflict and conflict between the two different attitudes of life from two diverse races Kamala Markandaya has brought to the centre her protagonists who are invariably women and therefore conflicts raised by the novelist relate to women All the characters in her novels experience troubles and turmoil s in life but they rise above their desperation triumphantly because of their aspiration It is a fact that Markandaya commands a wide reputation as a creator of readable novels she has received a wide ranging recognition and applause both in India and abroad She has been a subject of serious discussion But it is very surprising to note that an Indian woman novelist who has got a prominent position in India writing in English has not been able to draw the attention of critics and researchers to the extent she deserves The articles in books and journals by their very nature remain confined to studying her novels as individual works Book length studies of Markandaya s novels are only a few The proposed book will focus its attention on the conflict of nature in the novels of Kamala Markandaya through the discussion of the central characters It will do its level best to fill in the gap and will attempt to study Markandaya s novels Shashi Deshpande is one of the prominent writers who in the past two and a half decades established herself as a serious writer She is undoubtedly an outstanding Indian English novelist who has boldly voiced the issues and sufferings of women in her works She has projected this aspect of Indian women with more sensitivity and understanding as she was born and brought up in this soil This work is to analyze about the works of Shashi Deshpande and sense her to be a Feminist or Humanist The themes of sexuality and man woman relationship initially introduced in her stories are discussed which became the subject of full length novels But they are found not merely the raw material for her novels Her versatile treatment of women s issues reveals her sensitive nature as a woman writer and this quality affirms her works as an outstanding contribution to Indian literature in English proving her to be a humanist Sanjana Antil Grade Booster ICSE Question Bank English Success Class 8 Reena Sidhu,2025-09-16 Covers the entire English Success textbook with summaries meanings grammar focused exercises and exam based solutions Enhances comprehension composition and analytical skills for ICSE Class 8 students
