The Mirror A Short Story:

Mirror Mirror Francis Booth, 2019-04-02 We met in the mirror When we walked into our room for the first time we saw ourself in the mirror I mean that s what you see in a mirror isn t it Your self We looked identical Almost identical anyway We both wore a shapeless white dress But our dresses weren t exactly the same We were both carrying the bags that contained everything we had of our old lives Everything we had in the world was in those bags We had the same bags But not quite the same bags We both dropped the bags at the same time Though not at precisely the same time I looked at my reflection It was me But it wasn t completely me The Mirror: A Short Story from the collection, Reader, I Married Him Francine

the Mirror Philip Balma, 2014 Author of more than thirteen books and several volumes of poetry screenwriter and director Edith Bruck is one of the leading literary voices in Italy attracting increasing attention in the English speaking world not least for her powerful Holocaust testimony which is often compared with the work of her contemporaries Primo Levi and Giorgio Bassani Born in Hungary in 1932 she was deported with her family to the concentration camps of Auschwitz Dachau Christianstadt Landsberg and Bergen Belsen where she lost both her parents and a brother After the war she traveled widely until 1954 when she settled in Rome She has lived there ever since This important new study is motivated by a desire to better understand and situate Bruck s art as well as to advance and when necessary to revise the critical discourse on her considerable and eclectic body of work As such it underscores and analyzes the intermedial nature of her contributions to contemporary Italian culture which should no longer be understood merely in terms of her willingness to revisit the subject of the Holocaust on the printed page or the silver screen It also includes previously unpublished interviews with the author The book will be of broad interest to scholars and students of Jewish especially Holocaust studies Italian literature film studies women s studies and postcolonial culture

A Broken Mirror Merc_ Rodoreda,2006-01-01 In its moment of great splendor the novel was held as a mirror of society Merc_ Rodoreda shatters that mirror in this her most ambitious novel which tells its story in brilliant fragments a vision reflected and refracted and finally coming together in a richly articulated mosaic of life Through this Broken Mirror the reader sees events and characters spanning three generations and composing a kaleidoscopic family history ranging over six decades and turning upon events both intimate and historic most notably the Spanish Civil War Opening with Teresa Goday the lovely young fishmonger s daughter married to a wealthy old man the story shifts from one perspective to another reflecting from myriad angles the founding of a matriarchal dynasty and its eventual seemingly inevitable disintegration A family saga extending from the prosperous Barcelona of the 1870s to the advent of the Franco dictatorship A Broken Mirror is finally also a novel about the inexorable passing of time
