Visual Culture In Contemporary China Paradigms And Shifts:

Visual Culture in Contemporary China Xiaobing Tang, 2015-01-08 Exploring a wealth of images ranging from woodblock prints to oil paintings this beautifully illustrated full color study takes up key elements of the visual culture produced in the People's Republic of China from its founding in 1949 to the present day In a challenge to prevailing perceptions Xiaobing Tang argues that contemporary Chinese visual culture is too complex to be understood in terms of a simple binary of government propaganda and dissident art and that new ways must be sought to explain as well as appreciate its multiple sources and enduring visions Drawing on rich artistic literary and sociopolitical backgrounds Tang presents a series of insightful readings of paradigmatic works in contemporary Chinese visual arts and cinema Lucidly written and organized to address provocative questions this compelling study underscores the global and historical context of Chinese visual culture and offers a timely new perspective on our understanding of China today

Paradigm Shifts in Chinese Studies Shipping Hua, 2022-02-06 This book is a study of the change and continuity in paradigms in China studies both inside and outside of China In the last few years the United States and China appeared to be moving in the direction of de coupling indicating that the engagement policy with China in the last four decade is ending The modernization theory that is the theoretical foundation of the engagement policy has proved to be insufficient This situation calls for a reexamination of the field of China studies Historically scholarly paradigms shifts often went hand in hand with drastic social change As we have entered an era of great uncertainty it is constructive to reflect on the paradigms in China studies in the past and explore the possibility of new paradigms in the future How are the shifts of major theories methods and paradigms in China studies in the west related to social change How did some of China's paradigms impact on the country's social change and developments This book will appeal to a wide readership including scholars and graduate students upper division undergraduate students of China studies Asian studies

Socially Engaged Public Art in East Asia Meiqin Wang, 2022-04-12 This anthology elucidates the historical global and regional connections as well as current manifestations of socially engaged public art SEPA in East Asia It covers case studies and theoretical inquiries on artistic practices from Hong Kong Japan mainland China South Korea and Taiwan with a focus on the period since the 2000s It examines how public art has been employed by artists curators ordinary citizens and grassroots organizations in the region to raise awareness of prevailing social problems foster collaborations among people of varying backgrounds establish alternative value systems and social relations and stimulate action to advance changes in real life situations It argues that through the endeavors of critically minded art professionals public art has become activism as it ventures into an expanded field of transdisciplinary practices a site of new possibilities where disparate domains such as aesthetics sustainability placemaking social justice and politics interact and where people work together to activate space place and community in a way that impacts the everyday lives of ordinary people As the first book length anthology on the thriving yet disparate scenes of SEPA in East Asia it consists of eight chapters by eight authors who have well grounded knowledge of a specific locality or localities in East Asia In their analyses of ideas and actions emerging from varying geographical sociopolitical and cultural circumstances in the region most authors also engage with concepts and key publications from scholars which examine artistic practices striving for social intervention and public participation in different parts of the world Although grounded in the realities of SEPA from East Asia this book contributes to global conversations and debates concerning the evolving relationship between public art civic politics and society at large

The Making and Remaking of China's "Red Classics" Rosemary Roberts, Li Li, 2017-10-19 The Making and Remaking of China's Red Classics is the first full length work to bring together research on the red classics across the entire Maoist period through to the reform era It covers a representative range of genres including novels short stories films TV series picture books animation and traditional style paintings Collectively the chapters offer a panoramic view of the production and reception of the original red classics and the adaptations and remakes of such works after the Cultural Revolution The contributors present fascinating stories of how a work came to be regarded as or failed to become a red classic There has never been a single answer to the question of what counts as a red classic artists had to negotiate the changing political circumstances and adopt the correct artistic technique to bring out the authentic image of the people while appealing to the taste of the mass audience at the same time A critical examination of these works reveals their sociopolitical and ideological import aesthetic significance and function as a mass cultural phenomenon at particular historical moments This volume marks a step forward in the growing field of the study of Maoist cultural products The Making and Remaking of China's Red Classics analyzes the creation of literature in the Maoist era as well as the way in which the revolutionary canon was rediscovered and imagined during the reform period This book is a timely and fascinating set of studies critically illuminating a foundational time during PRC history and its aftermath Wendy Larson professor emerita University of Oregon Creative works produced in the Mao era 1942-1976 are often dismissed as mere propaganda Despite the fact that they are artistic reflections of that remarkable period scholars have generally ignored these red classics This book throws much needed light on them It is a must read for anyone wanting to understand the cultural scene in China Kam Louie honorary professor University of Hong Kong and UNSW Australia

Print Matters Maria Antonella Pelizzari, Andrés Mario Zervigón, 2025-11-11 This volume presents a nuanced exploration of how illustrated magazines shaped global visual culture between 1910 and 1970 In the early to mid twentieth century the vast majority of printed photographs appeared in the pages of illustrated magazines Publications such as Life China Pictorial Drum Picture Post and Ebony did more than showcase photographs they crafted visual narratives by combining images text and graphics into influential cultural artifacts These periodicals shaped public perception and mass media consensus like the Internet does today bringing a shared visual experience to homes and newsstands around the world The essays in this volume delve into the technologies and visual strategies behind these publications showing how their layouts were affected by political commercial editorial and artistic factors leading up to World War II The commentaries also explore how democracy dictatorships colonization and modernity at large gave rise to experimental magazine designs turning avant garde art and lifestyle reporting into popular formats Featuring over 150 images Print Matters traces how illustrated magazines evolved across countries and continents offering new insights into their history and enduring impact on culture and society

The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema Li Yang, 2018-10-31 The Formation of Chinese Art Cinema 1990 2003 examines the development of Chinese art film in the People's Republic of China from 1990 when the first Sixth Generation film Mama was released to 2003 when authorities acknowledged the legitimacy of underground filmmakers Through an exploration of the production and consecration mechanisms of the new art wave and its representative styles this book argues that the art wave of the 1990s fundamentally defined Chinese art cinema In particular this vital art wave was not enabled by democratic liberalism but by the specific industrial development in which the film system transitioned from Socialist propaganda into a commercialized entity Allowing Chinese art film to grow but at the same time denying its legitimacy this paradoxical transition process shaped Chinese art film's institutional and aesthetical alternative positioning which eventually helped consolidate the art wave into art cinema Ultimately this book is a history of the Chinese portion of global art cinema which also reveals the complex Chinese cultural experiences during the Reform Era

The Conformed Body: Contemporary Art in China Jiehong Jiang, 2024-07-29 Through the perspective of the conformed body this groundbreaking book examines the role in art of everyday conformist practices in the People's Republic of China such as mass assemblies and bodily trainings and exercises as well as their impact on people's perceptions and collective memories It identifies related artworks reassesses artistic interpretations with critical reflections and explores a key origin of artistic productions in post Mao China Featuring 200 colour illustrations the book discusses works by more than 30 internationally acclaimed Chinese contemporary artists including Ai Weiwei Geng Jianyi Song Dong Xu Bing Zhang Peili and Zhang Xiaogang

Appearance Politics Lex Lu, 2024-11-15 In Appearance Politics Lex Lu argues that crafting an appealing and powerful outward image has long been a critical political tool in China This strategy is evident in historical records imperial portraits physiognomic assessments photographs posters statues and digital images Using rare archival materials from Beijing Shanghai and Nanjing Lu explores how political figures designed their images and examines the shifting standards of male beauty that shaped their choices The book analyzes five case studies Ming Prince Zhu Di s usurpation the rise of Manchu masculinity and blended Han Manchu beauty standards under Emperor Yongzheng modern photography and Western beauty ideals in the early 20th century Sun Yat sen s crafted image as the Republican founding father and Mao Zedong s iconic visual legacy Through this empirical nuanced study Appearance Politics challenges stereotypical portrayals of Chinese male leadership in Western media and scholarship offering a richer understanding of appearance as a deliberate political strategy Chinese Animated Film and Ideology, 1940s-1970s Olga

Bobrowska,2022-10-24 This book examines animated propaganda produced in mainland China from the 1940s to the 1970s The analyses of four puppet films demonstrate how animation and Maoist doctrine became tightly but dynamically entangled The book firstly contextualizes the production conditions and ideological contents of The Emperor s Dream 1947 the first puppet film made at the Northeast Film Studio in Changchun It then examines the artistic intellectual and ideological backbone of the puppet film Wanderings of Sanmao 1958 The book presents the means and methods applied in puppet animation filmmaking that complied with the ideological principles established by the radical supporters of Mao Zedong in the first half of the 1960s discussing Rooster Crows at Midnight 1964 The final chapter discusses The Little 8th Route Army 1973 created by You Lei in the midst of the Cultural Revolution This book will be of great interest to those in the fields of animation studies film studies political science Chinese area studies and Chinese philology Journal of Folklore Research ,2018 Visual Culture in Contemporary China II Zhou Xian,2025-03-31 The second in a two volume series that explores the interplay between social transformation and visual culture in contemporary China this book examines the profound changes in the cityscapes visual regimes and visual technologies that shape the aestheticization of everyday life Drawing on an approach of Marxist historical materialism and interdisciplinary resources from sociology communication and art this volume investigates three key aspects of visual culture in modern China the transformation of urban landscapes and its impact on cultural autonomy and local identity the development of visual regimes focusing on public museums as sites for the construction of public visibility and the role of visual technologies in reshaping everyday life from the influence of television on traditional customs to the rise of internet subcultures This title will provide valuable insights for scholars and students of Chinese cultural and urban studies as well as readers interested in the ongoing visual transformation of contemporary Chinese society Visual Culture in Contemporary China I Zhou Xian,2023-07-21 As the first volume of a two volume set that examines the interaction between social transformation and visual culture in contemporary China this book explores the visual construction of popular culture avant garde art and grassroots media culture Drawing on an approach of Marxist historic materialism and academic resources of sociology communication and art this study of contemporary China s visual culture emphasizes two inter related aspects the visual construction of society and the social construction of the visual It seeks to unravel how visual culture is produced and constructed as well as how it reflects the profound social transformation and reshapes people's understanding and experience of modernization. In this volume the contributors revisit popular culture, avant garde art and grassroots media culture in contemporary China, analyzing the visual image and representation and visual culture's role in social construction. In doing so, the book also reveals the cultural tension of contemporary China in which the visual aspect figures prominently. This book will serve as an essential read for scholars and students of China studies and cultural studies as well as all levels of readers interested in visual culture in contemporary China.

Visual Culture Wars at the Borders of Contemporary China Paul Gladston, Beccy Kennedy-Schtyk, Ming Turner, 2022-01-01. This edited collection brings together essays that share in a critical attention to visual culture as a means of representing contributing to and/or intervening with discursive struggles and territorial conflicts currently taking place at and across the outward-facing and internal borders of the People's Republic of China. Elucidated by the essays collected here for the first time is a constellation of what might be described as visual culture wars comprising resistances on numerous fronts not only to the growing power and expansiveness of the Chinese state but also the residues of a once pervasively suppressive Western colonialism/imperialism. The present volume addresses visual culture related to struggles and conflicts at the borders of Hong Kong, the South China Sea and Taiwan as well within the PRC with regard to the so-called Great Firewall of China and differences in discursive outlook between China and the West on the significances of art, technology, gender and sexuality. In doing so, it provides a vital index of twenty-first century China's diversely conflicted status as a contemporary nation-state and arguably nascent empire.

Visual Culture in Contemporary China Zhou Xian, 2025. This comprehensive two-volume set explores the complex relationship between social transformation and visual culture in contemporary China. Drawing on Marxist historical materialism and interdisciplinary approaches, this set offers a nuanced analysis of how visual culture is produced, constructed and experienced in modern China. The first volume examines the visual construction of popular culture, avant garde art and grassroots media culture, analysing cultural tensions in contemporary China through the lens of visual representation and offering insights into the interplay between social change and visual expression. The second volume explores the transformation of urban landscapes, the evolution of visual regimes and the aestheticization of everyday life through visual technologies. It assesses how rapid urbanisation has affected cultural autonomy and local identity, explores the role of public museums in the construction of public visibility and analyses how visual technologies from television to mobile phones have reshaped traditional customs and given rise to new digital subcultures. This set will provide valuable insights for scholars and students of Chinese studies, cultural studies and urban studies as well as readers interested in the ongoing visual transformation of contemporary Chinese society.

Contemporary Chinese Visual Culture Christopher Crouch, 2014-05-14 This book examines three overarching themes: Chinese modernity's sometimes ambivalent relationship to tradition at the start of the twentieth century; the processes of economic reform started in the 1980s and their importance to both the eradication and rescue of traditional practices; and the ideological issue of cosmopolitanism and how it frames the older academic generation's attitudes to globalisation. It is important to grasp the importance of these points as they have been an important part of the discourse surrounding contemporary Chinese visual culture. As readers progress through this book it will become clear that the debates surrounding visual culture are not purely based on aesthetics; an understanding of the ideological issues surrounding the appearance of things as well as an understanding of the social circumstances that result in the making of traditional artifacts are as important as the way a traditional object may look. Contemporary Chinese Visual Culture is an important book for all collections dealing with Asian studies, art, popular culture and interdisciplinary studies.

Memes, Myth and Meaning in 21st Century Chinese Visual Culture Justine Poplin, 2023-10-31 This book explores the impact of global change in China in what is considered in the West as the Asian century and what this in turn means for visual culture. Unravelling a deep understanding of historical shifts in visual culture that represent socio-political mirrors of culture, it expands the Western perception of Chinese visual culture and the intertwined complexities of cultural signification. This book provides a key resource for Galleries and Academic Institutions offering insights into understanding the systems underpinning ideas, skills and influences of the new visual culture in the Asian century.
