Teaching New Literacies in Grades 4-6 Barbara Moss, Diane Lapp, 2009-11-24 Upper elementary students encounter a sometimes dizzying array of traditional and nontraditional texts both in and outside of the classroom This practical handbook helps teachers in grades 4-6 harness the instructional potential of fiction, poetry and plays, informational texts, graphic novels, digital storytelling, Web-based and multimodal texts, hip-hop advertisements, math problems and many other types of texts. Twenty-four complete lessons promote critical literacy skills such as comprehending, analyzing and synthesizing information and using writing to communicate new ideas and pose questions. Snapshots of diverse classrooms are accompanied by clear explanations of the research base for instruction in each genre. Ready-to-use reproducibles are included. Information Literacy and Technology Research Projects Norma Heller, 2001-02-15

When it comes to guiding students through the big end of the term paper or presentation, sometimes it's hard to know where to start, much less how to keep students on course once you get the ball rolling. These long-term projects culminate in products or presentations that nurture the information literacy skills students need to become self-directed learners. Students are educated hands-on about the many roles information technology can play in their search for knowledge. Brainstorming, strategizing, writing, critiquing and oral communication skills are strengthened through these collaborative problem-solving projects. In each chapter, problems or issues presented for research integrate many curriculum areas. Students walk away from each completed task with a greater ability to ask the right questions and locate the best, most accurate and timely answers. Learning and Leading with Technology, 2003

Technology in School Classrooms James G. Cibulka, Bruce S. Cooper, 2017-12-31 This book provides an excellent analysis of whether and how digital technologies can transform teaching and learning in classroom settings. The authors collectively provide a multi-dimensional perspective on how and under what conditions technology can be productively employed by teachers to more effectively meet the challenges presented by a rapidly evolving world. The Middle School Writing Toolkit Tim Clifford, 2013

The Middle School Writing Toolkit addresses the 5 major writing genres that middle school students are expected to master: reports, persuasive essays, how-to/procedural essays, narratives and literary responses, and provides 57 mini-lessons and more than 200 workstation tasks to start English teachers well on their way to creating a successful writing program in the classroom.
