Popular Geopolitics and Nation Branding in the Post-Soviet Realm

Robert A. Saunders, 2016-07-07 This seminal book explores the complex relationship between popular geopolitics and nation branding among the Newly Independent States of Eurasia and their combined role in shaping contemporary national image and statecraft within and beyond the region It provides critical perspectives on international relations nationalism and national identity through the use of innovative approaches focusing on popular culture new media public diplomacy and alternative narrators of the nation By positing popular geopolitics and nation branding as contentious forces and complementary flows the study explores the tensions and elisions between national self image and external perceptions of the nation and how this complex interplay has become integral to contemporary global affairs
