The Cultural Construction of London's East End

Paul Newland,2008-01-01 Paul Newland's illuminating study explores the ways in which London's East End has been constituted in a wide variety of texts films novels poetry television shows newspapers and journals Newland argues that an idea or image of the East End which developed during the late nineteenth century continues to function in the twenty first century as an imaginative space in which continuing anxieties continue to be worked through concerning material progress and modernity rationality and irrationality ethnicity and Otherness class and its related systems of behaviour The Cultural Construction of London s East End offers detailed examinations of the ways in which the East End has been constructed in a range of texts including BBC Television s EastEnders Monica Ali s Brick Lane Walter Besant s All Sorts and Conditions of Men Thomas Burke s Limehouse Nights Peter Ackroyd s Hawksmoor films such as Piccadilly Sparrows Can t Sing The Long Good Friday From Hell The Elephant Man and Spider and in the work of Iain Sinclair □□□,2008 It's the Little Things Erica James,2009-01-01 Dan and Sally Oliver and their friend Chloe Hennessey are lucky to be alive Three years on after surviving one of the world s biggest natural disasters the Boxing Day tsunami their lives have changed dramatically Dan and Sally are now parents Dan is enjoying being a stay at home father taking care of their young son and Sally is the breadwinner and loves her job as a partner in a Manchester law firm The arrangement has so far worked well but when Dan starts to question whether Sally has got her priorities right the cracks in their marriage begin to appear Dan and Sally have everything Chloe wishes for in life a happy marriage and a beautiful child Dumped by her long term boyfriend just weeks after the tsunami she s been on a mission ever since to find the perfect father for the child she craves When she meets Seth Hawthorne she thinks she may have hit the jackpot But is Seth the man she thinks he is A life can change in a heartbeat but IT S THE LITTLE THINGS is not simply about the moments when everything changes but also a moving compelling and inspiring story of how we lead our lives in the days and years that follow Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1971 The Year's Best Science Fiction: Seventeenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois,2000-08-12 In science fiction s early days stories often looked past 1984 to the year 2000 as the far unknowable future Here now on the brink of the twenty first century the future remains as distant and as unknowable as ever and science fiction stories continue to explore it with delightful results Collected in this anthology are such imaginative gems as The Wedding Album by David Marusek In a high tech future the line between reality and simulation has grown thin and it s often hard to tell who s on what side Everywhere by Geoff Ryman Do the people who live in utopian conditions ever recognize them as such Hatching the Phoenix by Frederik Pohl One of science fiction s Grand Masters returns with a star crossing tale of the Heechee the enigmatic vanished aliens whose discarded technology guides mankind through the future A Hero of the Empire by Robert Silverberg Showing that the past is as much a province of the imagination as the future this novelette returns to an alternate history when the Roman Empire never fell to show us just how the course of history can be altered The twenty seven stories in this collection imaginatively take us to nearby planets and distant futures into the past and into universes no larger than a grain of sand Included here are the works of masters of the form and of bright new talents Supplementing the stories are the editor s insightful summation of the year s events and a lengthy list of honorable mentions making this book a valuable resource in addition to serving as the single best place in the universe to find stories that stir the imagination and the heart The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005
