Academic Activism in Higher Education Nuraan Davids, Yusef Waghid, 2021-03-24 This book argues for renewed understandings of academic activism understandings that conceive of the ideas arguments and scholarship of the academe as embedded within the practices of what the academy does It examines why and how a renewed notion of academic activism informs a philosophy of higher education specifically in relation to teaching and learning The book focuses on the theories and practices of teaching and learning in particular how such pedagogical actions are guided by social political and cultural influences outside of the university as a higher education institution The authors advocate for a living philosophy of higher education that is commensurate with real actions and imaginary fictions of what constitutes higher education and what remains in becoming for the discourse With a focus on South African social justice education the book imagines pathways for academic activism to manifest in revolutionised pedagogical actions or actions that bring into contestation what already exists with the possibility for the cultivation of renewal

Neuronal Stochastic Variability: Influences on Spiking Dynamics and Network Activity Mark D. McDonnell, Joshua H. Goldwyn, Benjamin Lindner, 2016-07-18 Stochastic fluctuations are intrinsic to and unavoidable at every stage of neural dynamics For example ion channels undergo random conformational changes neurotransmitter release at synapses is discrete and probabilistic and neural networks are embedded in spontaneous background activity The mathematical and computational tool sets contributing to our understanding of stochastic neural dynamics have expanded rapidly in recent years New theories have emerged detailing the dynamics and computational power of the balanced state in recurrent networks At the cellular level novel stochastic extensions to the classical Hodgkin Huxley model have enlarged our understanding of neuronal dynamics and action potential initiation Analytical methods have been developed that allow for the calculation of the firing statistics of simplified phenomenological integrate and fire models taking into account adaptation currents or temporal correlations of the noise This Research Topic is focused on identified physiological internal noise sources and mechanisms By internal we mean variability that is generated by intrinsic biophysical processes This includes noise at a range of scales from ion channels to synapses to neurons to networks The contributions in this Research Topic introduce innovative mathematical analysis and or computational methods that relate to empirical measures of neural activity and illuminate the functional role of intrinsic noise in the brain

The Political Economy of Xenophobia in Africa Adeoye O. Akinola, 2017-11-13 This book analyzes the phenomenon of xenophobia across African countries With its roots in colonialism which coercively created modern states through border delineation and the artificial merging and dividing of communities xenophobia continues to be a barrier to post colonial sustainable peace and security and socio economic and political development in Africa This volume critically assesses how xenophobia has impacted the three elements of political economy state economy and society Beginning with historical and theoretical analysis to put xenophobia in context the book moves on to country specific case studies discussing the nature of xenophobia in Nigeria South Africa Zambia Ghana and Zimbabwe The chapters furthermore explore both violent and non violent manifestations of xenophobia and analyze how state responses to xenophobia affects African states economies and societies especially in those cases where xenophobia has widespread institutional support Providing a theoretical understanding of xenophobia and proffering sustainable solutions to the proliferation of xenophobia in the continent this book is of use to researchers and students interested in political science African politics peace studies security and development economics as well as policy makers working to eradicate xenophobia in Africa

The Cambridge Companion to Alexander the Great Daniel Ogden, 2024-01-18 Has any ancient figure captivated the imagination of people over the centuries so much as Alexander the Great In less than a decade he created an empire stretching across much of the Near East as far as India which led to Greek culture becoming dominant in much of this region for a millennium Here an international team of experts clearly explains the life and career of one of the most significant figures in world history They introduce key themes of his campaign as well as describing aspects of his court and government and exploring the very different natures of his engagements with the various peoples he encountered and their responses to him The reader is also introduced to the key sources including the more important fragmentary historians especially Ptolemy Aristobulus and Clitarchus with their different perspectives The book closes by considering how Alexander's image was manipulated in antiquity itself

Poverty, Inequality, and Innovation in the Global South Oliver Mtshali, 2023-03-03 This edited volume analyzes the experiences learned in practice especially among small holder farmers to eradicate poverty In other words it discusses practical solutions which small scale farmers can use to alleviate poverty and reduce inequality This addresses the issue of inclusive and sustainability of projects leading to the notion of not leaving anyone behind The book provides insights that can be translated into policy with potential to inform practice It also has the potential to address the issue of rural urban migration by providing knowledge that is usable by small scale farmers policy makers and entrepreneurs alike The volume is written by authors from different countries Nigeria Tanzania and Zimbabwe indicating the commonality of the problems of poverty and inequality It contains insights from all these countries assembled together into an amalgam of practices ready to use and implement informed by evidence from the field as most of the chapters are based on empirical data

Injuries and Health Problems in Football C. Niek van Dijk, Philippe Neyret, Moises Cohen, Stefano Della Villa, Helder Pereira, J. Miguel Oliveira, 2017-05-10 This book offers a comprehensive overview of current knowledge on the health problems and injuries associated with football and their clinical management After an opening section on technical aspects and fundamental principles all areas of football traumatology are addressed The coverage includes muscle tendon and stress injuries of the lower limbs and injuries to the ankle and foot knee hip and groin spine and head and upper limbs An individual section is also devoted to the most significant heart and other health conditions that may be encountered in players of all ages and standards Follow up rehabilitation and return to activity are discussed and the role of performance enhancement strategies is carefully examined with description of nutritional guidelines and the evidence on use of dietary supplements A concluding section highlights the potential of the next generation of biologics to improve the regeneration and biofunctionality of damaged tissues This book is written by world renowned experts and has been produced in cooperation with ISAKOS It will serve as a reference in the field of orthopaedics The Forgotten Teboho Pitso,2023-05-20 The book focuses on uncovering lies and myths that sustain the colonial and European supremacist agendas and restores Africa s role in originating civilisation science mathematics philosophy spirituality and Christianity It forms part of questioning the deification of Global North episteme as a universal theory The volume thus contributes to Southern theorisation that draws from multiple practices and lived experiences of those from the austral geographic location Global South whose understanding of time is secular Such theorisation challenges and denounces the imperialist gaze on contemporary science as the sole spectacle and arbiter of its significance in society The Global South episteme whose sources are indigenous practices collective knowing and collective experiences has all the right to claim its stake in hallowed spaces of knowledge production Effects of Globalization on Education Systems and Development Macleans A. Geo-JaJa,Suzanne Majhanovich,2016-11-04 With its comprehensive coverage and quality this provocative book is concerned with the future of developing countries in Africa Asia and Latin America By providing in depth analysis of the economic social and educational challenges of emerging states it offers an alternative roadmap to development The authors in this collection substantiate the notion that emerging states often do not participate in policy choices related to their development when faced with universalization of curriculum and internationalization of education The authors make explicit the direct and indirect effects of globalization on educational systems social equity and the path of development In demonstrating the impact of neoliberalism or market based reforms on the developing world the authors show that education without human rights is vulnerable to negative forces of globalization and internationalization The message of the book is quite pessimistic about possibilities to widen the economic space or increase freedom unless development cooperation is made possible by Helping People Help Themselves as suggested by David Ellerman The authors note that in the past the issue of emerging states as an appendage to the world economy was a fundamental question related to colonialism but now has become a question of imperialism which needs to be examined when considering the current patterns of development The Mobile Learning Voyage - From Small Ripples to Massive Open Waters Tom H. Brown,Herman J. van der Merwe,2015-10-14 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Mobile and Contextual Learning mLearn 2015 held in a cruise ship leaving from and arriving to Venice Italy in October 2015 The 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions The papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference The mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters The conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously paving the way for the broad and open waters ahead with new developments and progress in mobile learning and emerging ambient technologies Elections and TV News in South Africa Bernadine Jones,2021-08-02 This book takes television news seriously Over the course of nine chapters

Elections and TV News in South Africa shows how six democratic South African general elections 1994 2019 were represented on both local and international news broadcasts It reveals the shifting narratives about South African democracy coupled with changing and challenging political journalism practices The book is organised in three parts the first contains a history of South African democracy and an overview of the South African media environment The second part is a visual analysis of the South African elections on television news exploring portrayals of violence security power and populism and how these fit into normative news values and the ruling party s tightening grip on the media The final part is a conclusion a call to action and a suggestion to improve political journalistic practice
