Disadvantage
 The U.S. has a massive trade surplus, especially in government bonds, which is one of the reasons why the dollar is so strong. It also allows the U.S. to finance its current account deficits, government bonds, and environmental clean-up costs very easily. According to the Institute for Economics and Statistics (IERS) Government, "The large, relatively unbalanced trade surplus, based on the market, goes back mainly to a combination of factors. It's mainly due, however, to the fact that the U.S. exports more than it imports." www.iers.gov
