The Merchants' Magazine and Commercial Review ,1843 Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel

Foucault,2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault delivered a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that until recently remained almost unknown These lectures which focus on the role of avowal or confession in the determination of truth and justice provide the missing link between Foucault's early work on madness delinquency and sexuality and his later explorations of subjectivity in Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the twentieth century Foucault traces the early use of truth telling in ancient Greece and follows it through to practices of self examination in monastic times By the nineteenth century the avowal of wrongdoing was no longer sufficient to satisfy the call for justice there remained the question of who the criminal was and what formative factors contributed to his wrong doing The call for psychiatric expertise marked the birth of the discipline of psychiatry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as its widespread recognition as the foundation of criminology and modern criminal justice Published here for the first time the 1981 lectures have been superbly translated by Stephen W Sawyer and expertly edited and extensively annotated by Fabienne Brion and Bernard E Harcourt They are accompanied by two contemporaneous interviews with Foucault in which he elaborates on a number of the key themes An essential companion to Discipline and Punish Wrong-Doing Truth Telling will take its place as one of the most significant works of Foucault to appear in decades and will be necessary reading for all those interested in his thought Diseases of Women and Abdominal Surgery Lawson Tait,1889 The Dial Francis

Cassell,1984-12-15 Dante's Fearful Art of Justice deals primarily with the symbolic significance of the state of souls after death in various episodes of the Inferno the first canticle of Dante's Divina Commedia The fruitlessness of the Auerbach Singleton approach to the poem is demonstrated by Professor Cassell's investigations which are based on the belief that Dante used both the theological system of fourfold allegory and the preconfiguration fulfilment pattern of history found in the Old and New Testaments The author first deals with the history of contrapassum just retribution as it appeared in philosophy and theology and describes Dante's use of historical and artistic figuration both classical and Christian It is central to Cassell's aim to show how Dante believed that his portrayal of the damned revealed the justice of God Critics have believed that the relation of sin to the suffering of the shades in Hell was tenuous or even arbitrary in many cases Cassell shows through a close examination of Dante's assimilation of the Classics and their medieval interpretations or patristics and of traditional iconography that there is an intimate metaphorical and artistic aptness in the poet's representation Cassell relies at some points on art history and thirty four illustrations of frescoes statuary and illuminations from paleo Christian times to the fourteenth century are therefore included This volume will be of particular interest to medieval specialists historians of the Renaissance and Reformation periods and those concerned with European literature The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1860
