All Day Long Joanna Biggs, 2015-04-09 Nearly all of us have to work but how much do we really know about what other people do all day? What is it like to be a fishmonger, a sex worker or an Orthodox rabbi? Or a banker, a research scientist or a carer? How do our jobs affect our lives, beliefs and happiness? And what happens when we don't work? Joanna Biggs has travelled the country to find the answers, talking to interns and bosses, professionals and entrepreneurs, thinkers and doers. She takes us from Westminster to the Outer Hebrides, from a hospital in Wales to the industrial Midlands, introducing us to different worlds of work and the people who inhabit them. Rich with the voices of the wealthy and poor, native and immigrant women and men of the UK in the twenty-first century, All Day Long shows us who we are through what we do.

Riding the Waves Jane McDonald, 2019-10-31 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER Everything is much easier in life when difficult situations are faced with humour and a smile. But don't get me wrong, that took years to realise. What a journey. Whether performing in an arena, presenting a number one TV show or recording a top ten album, Jane McDonald will never forget her Northern roots. Her down-to-earth Yorkshire charm is as much a part of her as her talent for singing, and here she is telling her remarkable story with characteristic wit and warmth in her own words. A miner's daughter from Wakefield, Jane was a shy child who struggled with anxiety but she found the courage to overcome her fears and follow her passion for performing. Jane famously hit the big time overnight on TV show The Cruise twenty years ago, but here she talks for the first time about how she survived the dark legacy of that early success and climbed right back up for a second bite of the cherry. It hasn't all been plain sailing, but in Jane's world, tough times make the good times better, and her spirit, heart and humour sparkle from every page.
