Lord of Opium Nancy Farmer, 2013-09-26 Matt has always been nothing but a clone an exact replica grown from a strip of old El Patron's skin Now age fourteen Matt suddenly finds himself thrust into the position of ruling over his own country Opium on the one time border between the US and Mexico stretching from the ruins of San Diego to the ruins of Matamoros But while Opium thrives the rest of the world has been devastated by ecological disaster and hidden somewhere in Opium is the cure And that isn't all that's hidden within the depths of Opium Matt is haunted by the ubiquitous army of eejits zombie like workers harnessed to the old El Patron's sinister system of drug growing people stripped of the very qualities which once made them human Matt wants to use his newfound power to help stop the suffering but he can't even find a way to smuggle his childhood love Maria across the border and into Opium Instead his every move hits a roadblock both from the traitors that surround him and from a voice within himself For who is Matt really but the clone of an evil murderous dictator

God's Creation, Man's Fall, and the Lord's Redemption Witness Lee, 2024-02-08 If we are to understand the purpose and meaning of human life we must go to the Bible The purpose and meaning of human life is found in the Bible and the first great point in the Bible is creation Thus our consideration of the Scriptures must begin with God's creation God created man as a vessel to contain Him However in the Garden of Eden God's enemy Satan came in and caused man to fall He usurped and corrupted man But eventually the Lord Jesus came God became a man He lived a human life and went to the cross to die Through His death He redeemed man and dealt with all the negative things in the universe and then

He resurrected and brought us into resurrection Through Christ's redemption God was able to achieve the purpose for which He had created man namely He was able to put Himself in Christ into us and then bring us back to Himself
