The Journey Of Ibn Fattouma

Naguib Mahfouz

The Journey Of Ibn Fattouma:

The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Naguib Mahfouz, 1993-10-01 In this provocative and dreamy parable a young man disillusioned by the corruption of his homeland sets out on a quest to find Gebel the land of perfection from which no one has ever returned On his way Ibn Fattouma passes through a series of very different lands realms where the moon is worshipped where marriage does not exist where kings are treated like gods and where freedom toleration and justice are alternately held as the highest goods All of these places however are inevitably marred by the specter of war and Ibn Fattouma finds himself continually driven onward ever seeking Like the protagonists of A Pilgrim s Progress and Gulliver s Travels Naguib Mahfouz s hero travels not through any recognizable historical landscape but through timeless aspects of human possibility

The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Najīb Maḥfūz, 1992 Ontevreden over de verworden staat van denken en leven naar de islam in zijn land gaat een jonge Arabier op reis in de hoop het land met een perfecte samenleving te vinden The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Najīb Maḥfūz, 1993-10-01

The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Najīb Maḥfūz, 1993 The Journey of Ibn Fattouma 2020, ٢٠٢٠ ٢٠٢٠٠٠٠ The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 In this provocative and dreamy parable a young man disillusioned by the corruption of his homeland sets out on a quest to find Gebel the land of perfection from which no one has ever returned On his way Ibn Fattouma passes through a series of very different lands realms where the moon is worshipped where marriage does not exist where kings are treated like gods and where freedom toleration and justice are alternately held as the highest goods All of these places however are inevitably marred by the specter of war and Ibn Fattouma finds himself continually driven onward ever seeking Like the protagonists of A Pilgrim s Progress and Gulliver s Travels Naguib Mahfouz s hero travels not through any recognizable historical landscape but through timeless aspects of human possibility The Individual and Utopia Clint Jones, Cameron Ellis, 2016-03-09 Central to the idea of a perfect society is the idea that communities must be strong and bound together with shared ideologies However while this may be true rarely are the individuals that comprise a community given primacy of place as central to a strong communal theory This volume moves away from the dominant current macro level theorising on the subject of identity and its relationship to and with globalising trends focusing instead on the individual s relationship with utopia so as to offer new interpretive approaches for engaging with and examining utopian individuality Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing together work from around the world The Individual and Utopia enquires after the nature of the utopian as citizen demonstrating the inherent value of making the individual central to utopian theorizing and highlighting the methodologies necessary for examining the utopian individual The various approaches employed reveal what it is to be an individual yoked by the idea of citizenship and challenge the ways that we have traditionally been taught to think of the individual as citizen As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in social theory philosophy literature cultural studies architecture and feminist thought whose work intersects with political thought utopian theorizing or the study of humanity or human nature

The Journey of Ibn Fattouma Naguib Mahfouz, 1992 The Road to New Islam: Mahfouz, Arkoun, Abu Zaid, Kassim, & Other Muslim & Non-Muslim Thinkers Akef R. Abadir PHD., 2021-08-10

The author Akef R Abadir born in Tanta Egypt was living in Alexandria as the colonial period was drawing to an end in the 1950s and early 1960s At the time Alexandria Egypt was a multiethnic and cosmopolitan city The social fabric was composed of an aggregate of Egyptians Europeans and other minorities These different communities and denominations coexisted in relative peace and respect of one another However despite what was shared in common Europeans in general whether at home or abroad seemed to be more progressive than most Egyptians This discrepancy became even more dramatic as one left the urban centers such as Cairo and Alexandria and ventured into rural areas where poverty and illiteracy prevailed Looking back at life in this Mediterranean city nothing seemed to point to an answer where religion would be a major factor In fact in reaction to a prolonged foreign presence Egyptian society had been undergoing a gradual cultural change characterized by a return to a more restrictive interpretation and practice of Islam This observation launched the author Akef Abadir on a long period of exploration and research that led to the writing of this book Currently East West relationship is experiencing a period of great instability It has been suggested that the resolution of this conflict requires reaching a political compromise based on mutual acceptance and understanding To achieve this goal it is imperative to address the problem of Islamic modernism and examine the context in which it is taking shape From the authors viewpoint what has been written regarding Islamic modernity has not provided a comprehensive overview of the subject This book intends to address this gap and examine the core issues that have confronted Islam starting from the seventh century to the present The objective of this book is not to predict when Islam will modernize but rather to explore the current process of change taking place and the obstacles it is facing The aim is to ultimately promote a constructive dialogue between the Muslim community and the outside world particularly the West

fouz in1 his Trilogy Islam on the Street Muhsin Jāsim Mūsawī, 2009-09-16

The Experimental Turn in the Moroccan Novel, 1976-1989 Anouar El Younssi, 2024-12-03

The Experimental Turn in the Moroccan Novel 1976 1989 examines the trajectory of the Moroccan experimental novel and makes a link between its emergence in the early mid 1970s and the Arab defeat in the six day war with Israel in 1967 Drawing on works by Mu ammad Barr dah Abdull h al Arw A mad al Mad n and others the book contends that the Moroccan experimental novel reflects an historic turning point and transitional cultural landscape It further shows that the experimental novel laid the ground for a different vision of literature an important feature of which was the intent to surpass the traditional realist model as executed by Moroccan novelist Abdulkar m Ghall b 1919 2017 and Egyptian Nobel laureate Naj b Ma f 1911 2006 This new vision of literature seeks to create new discursive spheres for the treatment of the social and the political This book will be an important contribution to debates around Moroccan Arabic Maghrebi literature as well as to the field of literary experimentalism more broadly

The Postnormal Times Reader Ziauddin Sardar,2019-01-01 IIIT Books In Brief Series is a valuable collection of the Institute s key publications written in condensed form to give readers a core understanding of the main contents of the original Postnormal times are best defined as an in between period where old orthodoxies are dying new ones have yet to be born and very few things seem to make sense or as Ezio Mauro puts it we are hanging between the no longer and the not yet and thus we are necessary unstable nothing around us is fixed not even our direction of travel The postnormal times theory attempts to make sense of a rapidly changing world where uncertainty is the dominant theme and ignorance has become a valuable community The Postnormal Times Reader is a pioneering anthology of writings on the contradictory complex and chaotic nature of our era It covers the origins theory and methods of postnormal times and examines a host of issues ranging from climate change governance Middle East to religion and science from the perspective of postnormal times By mapping some of the key local and global issues of our transitional age the Reader suggests a way of navigating our turbulent futures

Future: All That Matters Ziauddin Sardar,2013-10-25 In Future All That Matters Ziauddin Sardar shows that thinking and speculating about the future has always been a part of human history but exploring the futures in a systematic and scientific way is a recent phenomenon What is known variously as futures studies futurology or foresight only emerged as a discipline during the last few decades The study of the future however is not only about predicting or forecasting the future which is always a perilous exercise It is also about appreciating the potentials and possibilities as well as risks and threats lurking over the horizon It can enable us both to avoid the dangers as well as shape a viable and desirable future This book explores the exciting field of futures studies and shows how knowledge of the future is acquired and put into practice We examine various methods for studying the future with the emphasis not so much on predicting specific events but on delineating alternative paths to the future We look at some celebrated readings of the future as well as case studies where exploration of the future has been used to shape policy and planning in businesses and communities international organisations and regional institutions and interest and lobby groups Finally the book suggests why and how in an increasingly complex uncertain and diverse world the study of the future can help people recover their agency and help them to create the world in which they wish to live This accessible and readable book will appeal both to students and general readers giving a fascinating introduction to thinking about the future and what matters most about it Dystopia in Arabic Speculative Fiction Wessam Elmeligi, 2023-08-29 Dystopia in Arabic Speculative Fiction A Poetics of Distress unpacks the nuanced Arabic contribution to speculative fiction Part of a larger project by Elmeligi to formulate a poetics of literary theory to read Arabic literature this book examines Arabic dystopian fiction from the lens of social causes of psychological distress The selected novels combine works by authors already established in studies by Western scholars and many that have not been translated before or have not received enough scholarly attention yet The novels represent an array of Arab countries including Algerian Egyptian Jordanian Kuwaiti Mauritanian Syrian and Tunisian authors It also highlights the contribution of women authors to Arabic speculative fiction This book enriches the conversation about what is quite possibly a significant speculative fiction turn in the Arabic novel as well as provides a new theoretical approach to read such complex and innovative literature Naguib Mahfouz Rasheed El-Enany, 2003-09-02 First Published in 2004 Naguib Mahfouz is one of the most important Arabic fiction writers of this century Born in 1911 his long and prolific writing career represents the evolution of a novel genre in Arabic literature His books are a record of the tragic tensions attendant on a nation's quest for freedom and modernity In 1988 he won the Nobel Prize for Literature This book provides a comprehensive study of Mahfouz's achievement Rasheed El Enany presents a systemic evaluation of the author's life and environment local and foreign influences on him elements of his thought and technique and the evolution of his craft While each work is discussed individually emphasis is laid throughout on elements of continuity in his work whether thematic or aesthetic In particular Dr El Enany challenges the traditional classification of Mahfouz's work into four chronological phases historical realist modernist and indigenous or traditional It is demonstrated that elements of these forms recur throughout Mahfouz's varied and experimental writings This book is the story of Mahfouz's struggle to free his novels from the prevalent predominantly Western moulds and to express his own socio political thought Global Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2025-06-18 Science fiction represents a diverse community of writers and readers that spans the entire world This collection provides a global tour of the genre with essays about Latin American European African Arabic Indian Japanese and Chinese science fiction providing insights about how writers around the world have explored and reinvigorated the genre Essays by prominent critics from five continents inform about particular cultures and analyze representative texts by authors such as Tobias S Buckell Lourenco Mutarelli Stanislaw Lem Masande Ntshanga Tawfiq Al Hakim Anil Menon and Cixin Liu The contributing scholars examine how national experiences have shaped these narratives which often differ strikingly from Anglo American science fiction An introductory survey of foreign language science fiction in the United States endeavors to explain why so many of these texts have remained unknown to Anglophone readers An extensive bibliography lists numerous resources for further study of science fiction from various parts of the world The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wail S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry The Thousand and One Nights and Twentieth-Century Fiction Richard van Leeuwen, 2018-07-17 It is gradually being acknowledged that the Arabic story collection Thousand and One Nights has had a major influence on European and world literature This study analyses the influence of Thousand and One Nights as an intertextual model on 20th century prose from all over the world Works of approximately forty authors are examined those who were crucial to the development of the main currents in 20th century fiction such as modernism magical realism and post modernism The book contains six thematic sections divided into chapters discussing two or three authors works each from a narratological perspective and supplemented by references to the cultural and literary context It is shown how Thousand and One Nights became deeply rooted in modern world literature especially in phases of renewal and experiment Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification. The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature. Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader, Diana Abu Jaber, Leila Aboulela, Leila Ahmed, Rabih Alameddine, Edward Atiyah Shaw, Dallal Ibrahim, Fawal Fadia, Faqir Khalil, Gibran Suheir, Hammad Loubna, Haikal Nada, Awar Jarrar, Jad El Hage, Lawrence Joseph, Mohja Kahf, Jamal Mahjoub, Hisham Matar, Dunya Mikhail, Samia Serageldine, Naomi Shihab Nye, Ameen Rihani, Mona Simpson, Ahdaf Soueif, and Cecile Yazbak.
