

Teenage Girl

We go through so many changes,
We go through so many tough times,
We go through heartbreaks,
We go through dumb choices and big mistakes.

Being a teenage girl is a stage that every woman has to go through,
God made us strong,
We will make it out okay,
Life may seem pretty tough right now, but we'll make our way.

Don't give up on the world,
You have so much ahead of you.
The future is upon us,
We have to make it worth the fuss.

Strive to live life to the fullest,
Don't look back at the past.
That's why it's behind us, because we face forward.
So set a goal and try your best and life will give a great reward.

The Last Girls Lee Smith, 2002-08-12 On a beautiful June day in 1965 a dozen girls classmates at a picturesque Blue Ridge women's college launched their homemade raft inspired by Huck Finn's on a trip down the Mississippi It's Girls A Go Go Down the Mississippi read the headline in the Paducah Kentucky paper Thirty five years later four of those girls reunite to cruise the river again This time it's on the luxury steamboat The Belle of Natchez and there's no publicity This time when they reach New Orleans they'll give the river the ashes of a fifth rafter beautiful Margaret Baby Ballou Revered for her powerful female characters here Lee Smith tells a brilliantly authoritative story of how college pals who grew up in an era when they were still called girls have negotiated life as women Harriet Holding is a hesitant teacher who has never married she can't explain why even to herself Courtney Gray struggles to step away from her Southern Living style life Catherine Wilson a sculptor is suffocating in her happy third marriage Anna Todd is a world famous romance novelist escaping her own tragedies through her fiction And finally there is Baby the girl they come to bury along with their memories of her rebellions and betrayals THE LAST GIRLS is wonderful reading It's also wonderfully revealing of women's lives of the idea of romance of the relevance of past to present of memory and desire

The Last Girl Stephan Collishaw, 2014-01-07 For a full hour I sat at my desk and stared up at the two photographs One by one I smoked a packet of twenty Prima cigarettes The earth I felt was beginning to shift and the long dead were stirring In the closing days of the twentieth century an elderly writer wanders the streets of Vilnius Lithuania possessed by the need to photograph the young mothers of the city In their faces and the faces of their children he sees the reflection of a secret that haunts him A secret he has spent years trying to bury In a decaying back street of the city a woman struggles to raise her family As her son dreams of a better life she is torn between Vilnius twilight world of prostitution and her determination of securing hope for her children She too is haunted by memories that rob her of sleep In Vilnius the rubble of the Jewish ghetto lies side by side with the fallen statues of communist heroes Through this tangled debris of past and present the story of the writer's great love and his even greater betrayal begins to coil its way to the surface and demands to be told in The Last Girl by Stephan Collishaw

The Night of Kadar Garry Kilworth,2011-09-29 After roving through space for centuries a starship unburdens its cargo of human embryos on a harsh new world They quickly grow to maturity in the ship s artificial womb A lifetime of Earth memories is programmed into their dreams But before their indoctrination is complete an alien intruder infiltrates and destroys the system and the reason for the odyssey is never learned Now on a verdant island surrounded by quicksand Othman wanderer dreamer and self proclaimed leader of the Earthling band builds a mighty bridge to span the ocean of molten mud that keeps them from the world beyond He has yet to face the deadly toll his quest will take on the delicate ecology of the planet or the revolt of his beautiful strong willed wife Silandi And he has yet to discover the hidden knowledge locked deep within their hearts Poet Lore ,1920 The Poetry Bug Andy
