The Journey of Modern Theology Roger E Olson, 2024-10-08 The Journey of Modern Theology Roger E. Olson, 2013-11-01 In this major revision and expansion of the classic 20th Century Theology 1992 coauthored with Stanley J Grenz Roger Olson tells the full story of modern theology from Descartes to Caputo from the Kantian revolution to postmodernism now recast in terms of how theologians have accommodated or rejected modernity What's the Point of Theology? Alister E. McGrath, 2022-07-12 Theology is the study of the nature of God and of religious belief But why should that matter to us What s the point of theology In this wonderfully accessible book renowned theologian Alister McGrath answers that question What s the point of theology and explores the depth and breadth theology can bring to our lives Drawing on insights from his experience of coming to Christianity from atheism this exhilarating and enlightening volume reveals how theology can help us grow in wisdom contribute to our wellbeing spark our innate sense of wonder and above all grow in faith and love as we draw ever closer to the divine Ideal for new and seasoned Christians who want to engage more deeply with their faith as well as those who are puzzled by spiritual matters and curious to find out more What s the Point of Theology will open your eyes to all that theology has to offer a wiser understanding of what really matters a richer vision of the good life a deeper appreciation of the beauty of nature and an avenue to strengthen your faith and relationship with God

Redemption That Liberates Wonho Jung, 2018-02-08 This book is for both evangelicals and ecumenicals interested in a holistic approach to the Christian vision of social transformation The author compares Richard Mouw s Reformed political theology and Nam dong Suh s Minjung theology to suggest a vision of transformation that is theologically more cogent and politically more engaged In general Minjung theology understands transformation in terms of political liberation and Reformed theology in terms of spiritual redemption and theologians of the two theologies have criticized the other s approach as theologically inadequate However Suh s formulation of Minjung theology and Mouw s Reformed political theology based on the neo Calvinist worldview show significant affinities with each other in their understanding of transformation in Christ Both Suh and Mouw show a broad understanding of liberation and redemption They develop their theologies in an inclusive both and way of thinking and their holistic approach is contrasted with the exclusive either or way of thinking in the Minjung theology of Byung mu Ahn and the Reformed theology of David VanDrunen The book concludes that redemption in Christ aims at an all encompassing transformation that includes not only spiritual renewal but also liberation from social alienation economic inequality and political oppression The Method of Christian Theology

Rhyne Putman, 2021-05-15 In The Method of Christian Theology Rhyne Putman guides readers through the essential first words of systematic theology Written for entry level theology students this book gives clear suggestions about how to use theological sources how to reason through difficult problems and how to apply theological reflection to paper writing and preaching By studying the foundations of theology readers will be better equipped to serve God s people in whatever ministry

they are called to God's Word Alone---The Authority of Scripture Matthew Barrett,2016-09-20 Scholar and pastor Matthew Barrett retraces the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine that Scripture alone is the final and decisive authority for God's people God's Word Alone is a decisive defense of the Bible as the inspired and inerrant Word of God Revitalizing one of the five great declarations of the Reformation sola Scriptura Barrett Analyzes what the idea of sola Scriptura is and what it entails clarifying why the doctrine is truth and why it's so essential to Christianity Surveys the development of this theme in the Reformation and traces the crisis that followed resulting in a shift away from the authority of Scripture Shows that we need to recover a robust doctrine of Scripture's authority in the face of today's challenges and why a solid doctrinal foundation built on God's Word is the best hope for the future of the church This book is an exploration of the past in order to better understand our present and the importance of reviving this indispensable doctrine for the Christian faith and church today THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God's glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches

The Historical Jesus and the Christ of Faith George Demetrian,2017-01-11 The Historical Jesus and the Christ of Faith examines the conflicting views of Marcus Borg and N T Wright on the long standing question of the relationship between the life and times of Jesus of Nazareth and the Christ of faith as depicted in the New Testament Demetrian has created a study designed to supplement and expand on the discussion laid out in Borg's and Wright's widely read The Meaning of Jesus Two Views While the author is more empathetic to Wright's emphasis on the continuities between the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith as illuminated throughout the New Testament he is critical of Wright's overemphasis on history In placing his interpretive emphasis on the revelatory dynamic of the canonical Scripture and the Great Tradition of Christian orthodoxy Demetrian calls for a fourth quest for the historical Jesus that starts from a position firmly rooted in biblical faith and works backwards in search of historical roots In this he draws on the Pauline vision of God reconciling the world to himself in Christ 2 Cor 5:19 as his underlying hermeneutics In exploring the broad range of issues that underpins the continuity/discontinuity question Demetrian has provided a resource designed to span a wide audience from Christian adult study groups interested in tackling books like The Meaning of Jesus to graduate level seminary students and professors Knowing God as an Evangelical Dan-Adrian Petre,2023-04-26 In the present polyphony of evangelical theological epistemology there are several authoritative approaches Yet the evangelical emphasis on sola scriptura demands that theological epistemology be subjected to the biblical canon In this book Dan Adrian Petre argues for a canonically derived theological epistemological framework that may foster a fuller understanding of theological knowledge formation within evangelicalism Specifically he explores some representative evangelical voices to identify the reasons for the contemporary epistemological variance Petre then uses a canonical epistemological methodology to outline a biblically based framework In exploring how the Scripture conceptualizes the formation of theological knowledge the book uses cognitive linguistics to grasp the conceptual meaning of the theological knowledge formation in the Bible using prototypical case studies The resulting epistemological implications outline a minimal epistemological model derived from the biblical canon Using this vantage point the author assesses the contemporary evangelical epistemological dissonance as a means of indicating a way forward for a canonical epistemological attunement

Experience, Culture and Religion in Systematic Theology Edmond Zi-Kang Chua, 2023-09-28 Most systematicians take as their starting point the nature of God and scripture as the means by which God's nature is revealed but what would a systematic theology look like that began with an experiential knowledge of God Here Edmond Chua offers a method for just such an approach Beginning with realms of human experience including psychology cultural diversity and religious plurality he builds the framework of a systematic theology that is inclusive and pluriform while retaining the core tenets of a Christian doctrine of God Notwithstanding his novel methodology Chua's argument remains biblically rooted and appreciative of the Christian tradition In the latter half of the book he returns to the classical doctrines of the Trinity Christology evil sin and salvation allowing his inclusive view of the human religious experience to shed new light on the wisdom bequeathed by Paul Augustine Aquinas Luther Barth and others The result is a bold Christian vision that is culturally engaged and globally applicable of interest to systematic theologians while contributing to interreligious dialogue

Theology and the Anthropology of Christian Life Joel Robbins, 2020-07-29 Anthropological theory can radically transform our understanding of human experience and offer theologians an introduction to the interdisciplinary nature between anthropology and Christianity Both sociocultural anthropology and theology have made fundamental contributions to our understanding of human experience and the place of humanity in the world But can these two disciplines despite the radical differences that separate them work together to transform their thinking on these topics Robbins argues that they can To make this point he draws on key theological discussions of atonement eschatology interruption passivity and judgement to rethink important anthropological debates about such topics as ethical life radical change the ways people live in time agency gift giving and the nature of humanity The result is both a major reconsideration of important aspects of anthropological theory through theological categories and a series of careful readings of influential theologians such as Moltmann Pannenberg J ngel and Dalferth informed by rich ethnographic accounts of the lives of Christians from around the world In conclusion Robbins draws on contemporary discussions of secularism to interrogate the secular foundations of anthropology and suggests that the differences between anthropology and theology surrounding this topic can provide a foundation for transformative dialogue between them rather than being an obstacle to it Written as a work of interdisciplinary anthropological theorizing this book also offers theologians an introduction to some of the most important ground covered by burgeoning field of the anthropology of Christianity while guiding anthropologists into core areas of theological discussion Although theoretically ambitious the book is clearly argued throughout and written to be accessible to all readers in the social sciences theology and religious studies interested in the place of religion in social life and human experience

Generous Orthodoxies Paul Silas Peterson, 2020-04-30 After the birth of the Protestant ecumenical movement in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and following the first great wave of universal Christian ecumenism in the 1960s and 1970s after the Second Vatican Council prominent theologians of nearly every ecclesial tradition charted new territory in the last decades of the twentieth century They crossed boundaries within their own ecclesial traditions and built bridges to other Christian churches churches that were once excluded from fellowship In the development of these new programs of ecumenical theology the theologians redefined their own confessional identities and in many cases crossed the liberal conservative divide within their own traditions This volume introduces this fascinating dynamic of theological mediation redefinition and generosity It shows how the ecumenical impulses which were directed outwardly to other traditions had reflexive effects inwardly Working in the realms of both historical and systematic theology the essays in this volume provide a critical analysis of the history of this general theological sentiment and offer an outlook for its future Contributors Brian D McLaren Foreword Paul Silas Peterson Introduction Part One Ecumenical reform theologies Andrew Meszaros Yves Congar The Birth of Catholic Ecumenism Matthew L Becker Edmund Schlink Ecumenical Theology Dorothea Sattler Otto Hermann Pesch Ecumenical Scholasticism Ronald T Michener George Lindbeck Ecumenical Unity through Ecclesial Particularity Nikolaos Asproulis John D Zizioulas A Pioneer of Ecumenical Dialogue and Christian Unity Part Two Overcoming liberal conservative polarities Ben Fulford Hans Frei Beyond Liberal and Conservative Friederike Nussel Wolfhart Pannenberg Liberal Orthodoxy Jay T Smith Stanley J Grenz The Evangelical Turn to Postliberal Theological Method Part Three Boundary crossings in philosophical systematic and ethical theology William E Myatt David Tracy Difference Unity and the Analogical Imagination Christophe Chalamet Robert Jenson God's Way and the Ways of the Church Victoria Lorrimar Stanley Hauerwas Witnessing Communities of Character Christine M Helmer Marilyn McCord Adams Philosophy Theology and Prayer Part Four Ecumenical theology today Wolfgang Vondray Pentecostalism and Christian Orthodoxy Revision Revival and Renewal Johanna Rahner Shifting Paradigms Future Ecumenical Challenges Michael Amaladoss Theology today in India Ecumenical or interreligious Bernd Oberdorfer Next Steps and Visions Lutheran Perspectives on Doctrinal Ecumenism

The Intimidation Factor Charles Redfern, 2020-08-05 What do we do when a formerly vibrant back to the Bible movement drifts into a toxic swamp rimmed with attack dogs Charles Redfern faces that grim question squarely He discovers that American evangelical Christianity which surged in the mid twentieth century and offered a more genteel intellectually vigorous alternative to caustic fundamentalism fell into the hands of intimidators and backbiters It was a short journey from there to the movement's partisan sell out and the abandonment of time honored creeds Redfern describes his own story in which he came into the faith at the movement's height in the 1970s then views evangelicalism's decay across its spectrum He doesn't spare conflict adverse moderates in the process But he also discovers hope A winsome remnant survives and its wooing the back to the Bible people back to the Bible bearing the fruits of the Holy Spirit as they do so The Perils of Human Exceptionalism Dennis L. Durst, 2022-07-18 Over the course of the nineteenth century transatlantic intellectuals slowly revised theological anthropology or the doctrine of humanity seen in light of the divine Gradually elite discourse deposed humanity from its lofty estate and centering it within a naturalistic account wherein likeness to animal fauna became the central evaluative lens Durst argues that theological anthropologies across the disciplines increasingly shifted focus away from classic confessional themes such as the soul and the image of God and toward the methods of natural theology and intuitionism This occurred in the form of challenges to theology in biology phrenology transcendentalism anti theology Christian socialism intuitionism and religious experience The human soul and human sinfulness also found a revised articulation in terms increasingly shaped by the cultural authority of science An ascendant subjective approach to human nature emerged whereby religious experiences not theological claims to truth assumed prominence as the central measures of religious life preacher as 'first listener' : 'calling' as a source of authority within the Flemish evangelical preaching tradition Filip De Cavel, 2020-01-01 The preacher's weekly assignment is brutally repetitive Fill the blank page by Sunday at least twice a month if not even more This book offers a biblical theological and empirical grounding to support the preacher's self-reflective listening and sermonizing practices in order for the preacher to be aware of his/her spirituality of listening and discernment

God and the Green Divide Amanda J. Baugh, 2017 American environmentalism historically has been associated with the interests of white elites Yet religious leaders in the twenty-first century have helped instill concern about the earth among groups diverse in religion race ethnicity and class How did that happen and what are the implications Building on scholarship that provides theological and ethical resources to support the greening of religion God and the Green Divide examines religious environmentalism as it actually happens in the daily lives of urban Americans Baugh demonstrates how complex dynamics related to race ethnicity and class factor into decisions to go green By carefully examining negotiations of racial and ethnic identities as central to the history of religious environmentalism this work complicates assumptions that religious environmentalism is a direct expression of theology ethics or religious beliefs

God in the Labyrinth Andrew Hollingsworth, 2019-10-11 In God in the Labyrinth Andrew Hollingsworth uses Umberto Eco's semiotic concept of the model encyclopedia as the basis for a new model and approach to systematic theology Following an in-depth analysis of the model encyclopedia in Eco's semiotics he demonstrates the implications this model has for epistemology hermeneutics and doctrinal development This work aims to bridge the unfortunate gap in research that exists between the fields of systematic theology and semiotics by demonstrating semiotic insights for theological method The Way of the Kenotic Christ Samuel J. Youngs, 2019-10-25 Despite his vast importance to twentieth century theology Jurgen Moltmann's Christology has yet to receive the same level of in depth exploration as other topics in his thought Samuel Youngs addresses this lacuna providing the first exhaustive analysis of Moltmann's doctrine of Christ including its key developments and controversial elements Youngs argues that Moltmann's doctrine of Christ is best understood as a unique variation of kenotic Christology This vision of Christ encapsulates not only a series of vibrant ethical and eschatological points but also serves Moltmann's overarching theological goal of empowering a church that lives and ministers under the cross Part I highlights key facets of Moltmann's theological method before unfolding the range of diverse themes that characterize his Christology Part II explores Moltmann's use of the kenosis hymn of Philippians 2 before interrogating Moltmann's relationship to christological tradition Part III engages in an original systematization of Moltmann's Christology centered on the theme of manifold relational kenosis
