The Lookout Man B. M. Bower, 1917 1917 With frontispiece by H Weston Taylor Bower authored several Westerns including Cabin Fever and The Flying U Ranch The Lookout Man begins From the obscurity of vast unquiet distance the surf came booming in with the heavy impetus of high tide flinging long streamers of kelp and bits of driftwood over the narrowing stretch of sand where garishly costumed bathers had lately shrieked hilariously at their gambols Before the chill wind that had risen with the turn of the tide the bathers retreated in dripping shivering groups to appear later in fluffs and furs and woolen sweaters still inclined to hilarity still undeniably loth to leave off their pleasuring at Venice dedicated to cheap pleasures See other titles by this author available from Kessinger Publishing The Lookout Man B. disguised voice The driver obeyed but his right hand came up with an automatic pistol in it He fired straight into the bunch foolishly perhaps at any rate harmlessly though they heard the bullet sing as it went by Startled one of the six fired back impulsively and the other two followed his example Had they tried to kill in the night and drunk as they were they probably would have failed but firing at random one bullet struck flesh The man with the automatic flinched backward reeled forward drunkenly and went down slowly his companion grasping futilely at his slipping body Hey you darn mutts whatcha shootin for Hell of a josh that is Jack shouted angrily and unguardedly Cut that out and pile in here New Outlook ,1917
