The Lost Lunar Baedeker Poems Of Mina Loy:

The Lost Lunar Baedeker Mina Loy, 1996 There was a time when it was common to couple Mina Loy's name with that of W C Williams or Marianne Moore her advanced contemporaries considered her a literary and artistic genius a descendant of Sappho by way of Emily Dickinson But the public was scandalized by her work and some critics openly scorned it Not only were her Futurist inspired techniques unlike anything most readers had encountered before but her subjects procreation parturition prostitution suicide addiction retardation were considered shocking even by some modernists Mina Loy vanished from the literary scene just as dramatically as she arrived on it and for most of the century her bold experiments have remained a well kept secret But in recent years Loy's work has been discovered by a new generation of poets and critics and has begun to surface in revisionist anthologies What has been needed is a reliable text of the essential Loy poems To assemble The Lost Lunar Baedeker Roger Conover has rescued Loy's poems and prose works from the Dada magazines and other ephemeral publications where they first appeared All of Loy's notorious Futurist and feminist satires are included as are many poems from her Paris and New York periods the complete cycle of Love Songs and several previously unknown texts Detailed notes accompany the text BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Mina Loy 1882-1966 was one of the most inscrutable artists and poets of the twentieth century. Born in London and formally trained as an artist in London, Munich, and Paris, Loy was elected as a member of the Salon d'Automne in Paris at the age of 23. Her modernist enlightenment came through her introduction to the Italian Futurists, and her subsequent structurally startling and provocative poetry and manifesto writing brought her immediate notoriety and the embrace of the American avant-garde. Upon her arrival in New York in 1916, she was featured as the prototype of the Modern Woman in a profile in the New York Evening Sun. Her writings were published in Camera Work, Little Review, Rogue, and elsewhere, and her art was included in the groundbreaking 1917 Independents Exhibition. She was Marcel Duchamp's date for the Blind Man's Ball, a friendship that lasted throughout their lives, as Duchamp organized Loy's final exhibition in 1955. Today, Loy is remembered primarily as a poet. Mina Loy: Strangeness Is Inevitable is the first book to examine the full scope of her career, including her visual work. The book follows Loy on her transatlantic passage to America as an immigrant in 1936 and features over 50 of her paintings, drawings, and constructions alongside a selection of her poetry and writings, all of which reveal her omnivorous creativity as an image maker, author, and cultural arbiter. These works are complemented by extensive, never-before-assembled archival materials that provide context for her art within the arc of her extraordinary life. Contributing authors will show how indispensable a force she was in introducing Italian futurism to America, radicalizing the aspirations of feminism, expanding the aesthetics of surrealism, and presaging American pop art through her assemblage constructions. Introducing the full breadth of Loy's creative expression—painting, drawing, poetry, prose, art criticism, and fashion design—Mina Loy presents the remarkable vision of this iconoclast. Mina Loy Mary Ann Caws,2022-07-18 Featuring many rare images, an enlightening exploration of the life and work of avant-garde multihyphenate Mina Loy. Mina Loy was born in London in 1882, became American, and lived variously in New York, Europe, and finally Aspen until she died in 1966. Flamboyant and unapologetically avant-garde, she was a poet, painter, novelist, essayist, manifesto writer, actress, and dress and lampshade designer. Her life involved an impossible abundance of artistic friends, performance, and spectacular adventures in the worlds of Futurism, Christian Science, feminism, fashion, and everything modern and modernist. This new account by Mary Ann Caws explores Mina Loy's exceptional life and features many rare images of Mina Loy and her husband, the Swiss writer, poet, artist, boxer and provocateur Arthur Cravan who disappeared without a trace in 1918 Curious Disciplines Sarah Hayden, 2018-04-15 Foregrounding Loy's critical interrogation of Futurist Dadaist Surrealist and Degenerate artisthood and exploring her poetic legacies today Curious Disciplines reveals Loy's importance in an entirely novel way Reading Mina Loy's Autobiographies Sandeep Parmar, 2013-06-06 Mina Loy is recognised today as one of the most innovative modernist poets numbering Gertrude Stein Marcel Duchamp Djuna Barnes and T S Eliot amongst her admirers Drawing on substantial new archival research this book challenges the existing critical myth of Loy as a modern woman through an analysis of her unpublished autobiographical prose Mina Loy's Autobiographies explores this major twentieth century writer's ideas about the modern and how they apply to the modernist writer based on her engagement with twentieth century avant garde aesthetics and charts how Loy herself uniquely defined modernity in her essays on literature and art Sandeep Parmar here shows how ultimately Loy's autobiographies extend the modernist project by rejecting earlier impressions of avant garde futurity and newness in favour of a late modernist aesthetic one that is more pessimistic inward and interested in the fragmentary interplay between the past and present Transformations of Trauma in Women's Writing Laura Alexander, 2023-01-10 This volume examines the ways in which trauma alters women's identities While some of the chapters look deeply at individual experiences many of the contributions look to national traumas and the consequences of political abuses including colonial subjugation and genocide for women The book shows that language has a transformative power to change us to give us a great capacity for inner and outer dialogues and for healing and self love As shown here women have historically employed autobiography and memoir to free themselves and others rather than seeing the limit of form they reinvent the parameters to offer a new relationship with language Poetry For Beginners Margaret Chapman, Kathleen Welton, 2010-01-19 Poetry is one of those subjects almost impossible to define as it can be so many things at once It can be kids whispering limericks on the playground secret languages used by revolutionaries and spies or the written strength of oppressed people Poetry is how millions of people across time have used language to try to better understand love hate war religion oppression joy sorrow sex and death Poetry is one of the oldest forms of writing in the world yet also constantly evolving Despite its complexities poetry is probably the way most people learned how to read Poetry For Beginners is a fun lively and accessible guide and expands one's understanding and knowledge of poetry through the ages From ancient Greece to the present Poetry For Beginners traces the wonders of the written word and shows how it is relevant in daily life

Revisiting the Poetics and Politics of Modernism Tamlyn Avery, Sascha Morrell, 2025-12-02 This book revisits women's literature in 1922 long hailed as the miracle year of literary modernism a landmark year of avant garde innovations in publications that included James Joyce's Ulysses T S Eliot's The Waste Land and Ezra Pound's The Cantos Yet if 1922 has been considered a modernist annus mirabilis it was many things besides In 1922 or thereabouts according to Willa Cather the literary world broke in two sequestering traditional writers from those considered modern Many women writers produced work that year across a spectrum of genres forms and politics that would not be accepted into Hugh Kenner's modernist canon Nor however did they readily fit into Cather's categories in some cases rupturing and in other cases affirming a consensus of modernism as a masculinist culturally imperialist interwar enterprise Considering 1922's historical significance the essays in this collection seek greater inclusion of women in our memory of this year including writers from a range of global and regional contexts and cultural backgrounds Extending other attempts to examine the gender politics of modernism modernity over the past thirty years the project draws connections between the significance of 1922 as it has been understood in the new modernist studies and feminist literary criticism that utilizes single year approaches to revisit and reflect on women's history and the gender politics of modernism
