The Developing Person Through Childhood and Adolescence Kathleen Stassen Berger, 2008-10-30 Check out a preview Edition after edition Berger's highly praised bestselling text opens students' eyes to the ways children grow and the ways that growth is investigated and interpreted by developmentalists. Staying true to the hallmarks that have defined Berger's vision from the outset, the Eighth Edition again redefines excellence in a child development textbook combining thoughtful interpretations of the latest science with new skill building pedagogy and media tools that can revolutionize classroom and study time.

Preventing Alcohol-related Problems on Campus William DeJong, 1995 This guide presents detailed descriptions of potentially effective approaches to preventing impaired driving by college students due to alcohol abuse. Chapter 1 provides an overview of alcohol impaired driving and discusses changes in public attitudes, the scope of the problem, involvement of teens and young adults, and the challenge of reaching college students. Chapter 2 on increasing awareness discusses typical awareness messages, national awareness programs, Students Against Driving Drunk, and Boost Alcohol Consciousness Concerning the Health of University Students (BACCHUS) and designing awareness messages for young adults. A chapter on alternative transportation programs reviews the designated driver program and safe ride programs. Next, a review of responsible beverage service programs includes the Training for Intervention Procedures by Servers of Alcohol (TIPS) program and the Stanford Community Responsible Hospitality Project. Deterrence strategies to prevent alcohol impaired driving are discussed in the fifth chapter and include use of sobriety checkpoints, controlling student access to alcohol, and school imposed penalties. The final chapter is a call for public action. Appendices provide a Risk Assessment Form from the Stanford project, sources of other information and resources, and a list of publications. MAH

Infant, Child and Adolescent Nutrition Judy More, 2021-06-27 Infant, Child and Adolescent Nutrition: A Practical Guide, Second Edition, is an evidence-based practical guide introducing readers to the theory behind optimal child nutrition. Containing practical advice on how to put that theory into practice, this new edition facilitates learning through case studies, key points, and learning activities. Divided into seven sections, chapters cover prenatal nutrition and nutrition throughout childhood from preterm babies to adolescents up to the age of 18. Sections throughout focus on topics ranging from nutrient requirements, balanced eating patterns, and common problems to cultural influences on food choices and guidelines on assessing growth and dietary intakes. Prevention and management of obesity and allergies are covered in separate chapters. The first 1000 days are given particular consideration with chapters on diets for preconception, pregnancy, milk feeding, and complementary feeding during infancy. The chapter on nutritional treatments covers common conditions such as diabetes and Crohn's disease, as well as more intricate feeding regimes and tube feeding required for children with rarer diseases and syndromes. New in this second edition are changes in food allergy prevention and oral immunotherapy treatments, causes and management strategies to deal with fussy and selective eating in toddlers, the importance of iodine in diets before and during pregnancy to improve children's cognitive abilities Updated recommendations on vitamin D supplementation This second edition is an essential reading for students taking courses in nutrition and paediatric healthcare It serves as a useful reference for individuals responsible for the nutritional intakes of children in primary care and community settings including early years practitioners midwives health visitors school nurses and governors social workers paediatricians and general practitioners About the Author Judy More BSc RD RN is a Paediatric Dietitian Honorary Lecturer at the University of Plymouth UK and Director of Child nutrition co uk Ltd London UK
