The Routledge Handbook of Critical Pedagogies for Social Work Christine Morley,Phillip Ablett,Carolyn Noble,Stephen Cowden,2020-01-20 The Routledge Handbook of Critical Pedagogies for Social Work traverses new territory by providing a cutting edge overview of the work of classic and contemporary theorists in a way that expands their application and utility in social work education and practice thus providing a bridge between critical theory philosophy and social work Each chapter showcases the work of a specific critical educational philosophical and or social theorist including Henry Giroux Michel Foucault Cornelius Castoriadis Herbert Marcuse Paulo Freire bell hooks Joan Tronto Iris Marion Young Karl Marx Antonio Gramsci and many others to elucidate the ways in which their key pedagogic concepts can be applied to specific aspects of social work education and practice The text exhibits a range of research based approaches to educating social work practitioners as agents of social change It provides a robust and much needed alternative paradigm to the technique driven conservative revolution currently being fostered by neoliberalism in both social work education and practice The volume will be instructive for social work educators who aim to teach for social change by assisting students to develop counter hegemonic practices of resistance and agency and reflecting on the pedagogic role of social work practice more widely The volume holds relevance for both postgraduate and undergraduate qualifying social work and human services courses around the world

The Nurse as Wounded Healer Marion Conti-O'Hare, 2002 This work depicts the evolution of the wounded healer phenomenon and its impact on the practice of nursing It explores how healing has been defined in the past and emphasizes the changing focus necessary to meet the relevant health care needs of an increasingly wounded society in the 21st century

Trauma Informed Support and Supervision for Child Protection Professionals Fiona Oates, 2022-08-19 This book presents a narrative approach to creating a supportive environment for health and human service practitioners who work with vulnerable children and their families one of the most difficult and complex areas of practice People working in these environments are routinely exposed to violence and trauma and commonly experience symptoms of traumatic stress as a result Traditionally human service and health care service organisations have struggled to support practitioners who experience primary and secondary trauma in either a preventative context or post exposure Using contemporary trauma theory this book provides a trauma informed support and supervision framework for supervisors and managers of practitioners that recognises the uniqueness of the practice field the diversity of practitioners who undertake the work and the diversity of contexts in which they work It will be required reading for all human service and health professionals including social workers psychologists and nurses as well as teachers counsellors and youth workers

You Can'T Heal a Wound by Saying It'S Not There Dr. Saundra J. Taulbee, 2017-07-07 Today men and women are running around empty trying to fill a void with addictions to work busyness alcohol drugs high debt pornography serial dead end relationships and sex without commitment My book speaks about the futility of this empty search and helps you find peace and meaning beyond yourself You Cant Heal a Wound by Saying Its Not There is about recognizing the wounds we all have from growing up that cripple us until we face them and overcome them Written in a case study format and interspersed with poignant illustrations and memoirs from the authors life this book helps people identify what they need to do to grow up and become all that God intended so that they can use their life to help someone else be better I have learned much from people who have taught me over the years in private psychotherapy practice I have also learned much from people I have served in churches and from our church systems that sometimes leave people marginalized Thus I have a passion for and am drawn to those who have been alienated for one reason or another from church and institutionalized religion With that said I am currently planting a new church with outreach to people who feel disconnected from God www.connectionscommunitychurchirvine.net
