Tonic Solfa Of Hymns:

Hymns and Constructions of Race Erin Johnson-Williams, Philip Burnett, 2024-02-07 Hymns and Constructions of Race Mobility Agency De Coloniality examines how the hymn historically and today has reinforced negotiated and resisted constructions of race It brings together diverse perspectives from musicology ethnomusicology theology anthropology performance studies history and postcolonial scholarship to show how the hymn has perpetuated generated and challenged racial identities The global range of contributors cover a variety of historical and geographical contexts with case studies from China and Brazil to Suriname and South Africa They explore the hymn as a product of imperialism and settler colonialism and as a vehicle for sonic oppression and or resistance within and beyond congregational settings The volume contends that the lived tradition of hymn singing with its connections to centuries of global Christian mission is a particularly apt lens for examining both local and global negotiations of race power and identity It will be relevant for scholars interested in religion music race and postcolonialism measures they disclose as well as gauge the publics near and far on which they stand sit lie or fall Because publics shift and mingle theologies require reimagining relocating and embracing fresh insights and energies The insights and energies embraced in this work are in three clusters spaces bodies and technologies The spotlighted spaces are in Africa Asia Black America the Caribbean and Pasifika beyond the eyes of mainline theologies the privileged bodies have survived with scars from empire and missionary positionings and the welcomed technologies include Dalit indigenous art poetry cyborg and the novel This collection is troubling in several ways first reimagining and relocating are troubling acts upon their subject matter here public theologies On that note what theology is not public Second this work takes theologies in general and not just the theologies that carry the public designation to be public theologies Third this work takes theologies in general to be inherently troubling In other words theologies that are not troubling are not public enough Christianity John
